Community

North Kitsap is part of the scenic and majestic landscape of historic Poulsbo, located in Kitsap County, Washington. It is approximately 11 miles and a 35-minute ferry ride to the city of Seattle. Approximately 10,500 people reside in this culturally diverse community. Every year, thousands of people visit the town, often referred to as "Little Norway", to take in the sites and the unparalleled views of the Olympic Mountains. The area is also the home of Naval Base Kitsap, which is the primary employer in Kitsap County.

High School

North Kitsap High School (NKHS) serves a current student population of about 1100 students. NKHS is committed to providing every student a safe and welcome learning environment which will prepare every graduate for life beyond high school. NKHS is a public four-year comprehensive high school. North Kitsap High School incorporates a two semester, 36-week school schedule, and accomplishes instruction in a modified block. NKHS is also accredited by the State of Washington and the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges (NASC). In addition to strong AP and college preparatory curriculum, NKHS is also committed to a number of extra-curricular experiences which both enhance and prepare graduates for success in the world beyond high school.

Engagement: (2021-22): 64.5% of 9th graders on track to Graduate. 44.7% of NKHS students took Duel Credit Course.

Grades and Class Rank Policy

All grades, by state mandate, are not weighted. All courses, except those denoted with a "E", "P", "S", "W", or an "NC", are calculated into a students cumulative GPA and class rank. Students are not ranked until the completion of their junior year. In light of the highly competitive nature of our school and the academic success that most of our students enjoy, a Grade Distribution Chart has been provided to put class rank in the proper perspective.
