

How do I file a complaint of sex discrimination?

A student, parent, guardian, employee, individual, or organization may file a written complaint alleging discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and/or bullying on the basis of a protected characteristic under the District's Uniform Complaint Procedure by completing the appropriate paperwork and sending the complaint to the Title IX Coordinator listed above.

The Uniform Complaint Procedure is covered in Board Policy 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures and Administration Regulation 1312.3 - Uniform Complaint Procedures. The Uniform Complaint Form is available here; and is also available in all school offices, at the District Office, and on the District website.

In addition to Title IX, the California Education Code prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in schools. (California Education Code § 220-221.1) Other state and federal laws also prohibit discrimination and ensure equality in education. Please refer to the District's Board Policies and Administrative Regulations for more information on the District's anti-discrimination policies.
