

Cultural Diversity Tuition Waiver

WHO CAN APPLY

- ◇ Enrolled members of federally recognized American Indian and Alaska Natives and Villages as defined pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act and as such constitute a political group officially recognized by the United States government.
- ◇ Members of a culturally diverse group, who are defined as individuals, underrepresented (African American, American Indian, Asian American, or Hispanic) persons of different cultural, racial, or ethnic heritage.
- ◇ Persons who are economically disadvantaged, who are defined as persons who have a total family contribution not to exceed 25 percent of tuition of the previous year based upon the federally prescribed needs analysis formula.

AWARDS OFFERED

- ◇ Awards may be made up to the amount of tuition. Tuition awards do not include application fees, books, board, room, and other fees relating to the cost of attendance (does not include online classes).
- ◇ Priority consideration will be given to applications received by April 15.
- ◇ Students may also be eligible for other scholarships and federal aid.

Recognizing the educational benefit of a diverse student population, University of North Dakota has introduced a tuition award program. Special emphasis of this program is to recruit, assist, and retain enrolled members of federally recognized American Indian tribes and Alaskan Natives and Villages, graduates of tribally controlled community colleges, all other underrepresented groups, and economically disadvantaged students.
