

Inhalers and Epi-Pens

If your child is capable of and has been instructed in the proper method of self-administration of either of these medications, they may be permitted to carry with them at all times. We will, however, need a form completed by the prescribing physician and a parental release. The school principal and LSN will need to review and accept any of these requests.