COURSE DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE
This is a beginning level course that introduces students to Mandarin Chinese language used in everyday communication. Students will learn the basics of Chinese grammar and subtleties of Chinese pronunciation through story-based lessons. Students will build a foundation of conversational ability and listening comprehension. They will also learn to read and write in Chinese through engaging learning activities. No Chinese language learning background is required.
ENDURING UNDERSTANDINGS	ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS
Students will understand that...	Students will keep considering...
Comparing and contrasting one's own and other language and culture enables individuals to gain new insight about self and the world.	Why should I take another language? How does learning another culture help me understand my heritage? (Who am I?)
Language learning provides opportunities to uncover big ideas about languages, cultures, and other disciplines.	What does it like to be a global citizen?
Speaking, listening, reading and writing skills are developed by using the interpersonal, interpretive and presentational modes of communication.	What are the actions I can do to prepare myself to be a global citizen?
Culture and language are inseparable; they influence and reflect each other.	In what way I can use my knowledge of the language and culture to help me deepen my understanding of its' history
The study of world languages enables individuals to participate in multiple communities and enriches their experiences.	How will the study of Mandarin Chinese help me to explore the world?
