Paul Baillon

A Yale University president some years ago gave this advice to a former president of Ohio State: Always be kind to your A and B students. Someday one of them will return to your campus as a good professor. And also be kind to your C students. Someday one of them will return and build you a two million- dollar science laboratory.

A fault recognized is half corrected.

Sometimes it is better to ask some of the questions than to know all the answers.

David Derauf VII

As is probably downright obvious, the picture here is not of the said party, David Derauf. Why is this so? Well, as the story goes, Dave was supposed to have his senior picture taken one fine morning in Bayfield, Wisconsin. At any rate, there was this yacht party at which David was the bartender the night before. One thing led to another and well, the next morning Dave was, or shall we say had... "three sheets in the wind." With the photo session just minutes away it was suggested he be keelhailed. Fortunately for Dave, one of the crewmembers, his first mate, volunteered her services and became the object of the photographer's attentions. Wench this picture and not one of David. Anyhow, according to Dave, "a broad on the beam" makes a better photo than a "canned buoy"!"

The road goes ever on and on

WIND ON THE HILL

No one can tell me
Nobody knows
Where the wind comes from,
Where the wind goes.

It's flying from somewhere
As fast as it can.
I couldn't keep up with it,
Not if I ran,

But if I stopped holding
The string of my kite,
It would blow with the wind
For a day and a night.

And then when I found it,
Wherever it blew
I should know that the wind
Had been going there too.

So then I could tell them
Where the wind goes . . .
But where the wind comes from
Nobody knows.

A Cargo of Propane Explodes at Sea

In the Chilean port of Antofagasta, workmen were unloading propane gas tanks from the 1,700-ton freighter Maria Elizabeth when one cylinder suddenly broke from a hoisting winch, fell back into the hold and triggered an explosion that killed seven crewmen. The fire spread quickly, posing a threat to the whole harbor. As the freighter was hurriedly towed out to sea, a second explosion tore it apart—and at that instant a photographer took this classic picture.

Press On
Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence.
Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education alone will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.

Now you are ready for the most difficult and the most fun of all-
to fly straight up and know the meaning of kindness and
love.

Stopping By Woods on a Snowy Evening

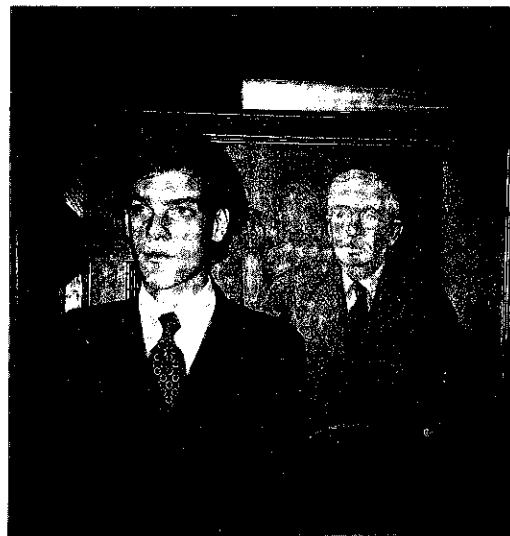

Whose woods these are I think I know
His house is in the village, though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lonely, dark, and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

How happy is the little stone
That rambles in the road alone,
And doesn't care about careers,
And exigencies never fears,

So why do we do it?
What good is it?
Does it teach you anything?
Like determination? invention?

Foresight? hindsight?
Love?
Art? music? religion?
Strength or patience or accuracy

John F. Perry III

Ticking away the moments that make up a dark day
You fritter and waste the hours in an offhand way
Kicking around on a piece of ground in your home town
Waiting for someone or something to show you the way

Tired of lying in the sunshine staying home to watch the rain
You are young and life is long and there is time to kill today
And then one day you find ten years have got behind you
No one told you when to run, you missed the starting gun

Pink Floyd

Martha Ann Peters

Once in a vision I came on some woods
And stood at a fork in the road
My choices were clear
Yet I froze with the fear
Of not knowing which way to go.
One road was simple
Acceptance of life
The other road offered sweet peace.
When I made my decision
My vision became my release.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done
There are thousands to prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you one by one
The dangers that wait to assail you.
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,
Just take off your coat and go to it.
Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing
That cannot be done, and you'll do it.
