

Textbook Returns and Pick Up Information

In order to ensure that your child has the correct textbooks, it is important that you match the International Standard Book Number (ISBN) on the Mercymount Country Day School textbook list with the books you are ordering (available on our web site at www.mercymount.org). Most book vendors use the 10-digit ISBN noted on our list. A few vendors use a 13-digit system. If there is any question, ask the vendor to verify the 10-digit ISBN for you.

Rhode Island Residents:

Your local school district will provide you with the textbooks listed on the Mercymount Country Day School textbook list at no charge to you. Each district has specific dates when to return and pick up books. These dates are usually printed in the town's local newspaper.

The following districts have provided us with this information (if your school district is not listed below, please contact them directly):
