

19th Annual School & District Leadership Academy

“Leadership Actions Known to Improve Student Achievement”

Developing Yourself as a Leader and Ideas, Ideas, Ideas

Presented by Steven A. Bollar, National Presenter, Author, Former Superintendent

Developing yourself as a leader is more than reading a few books and implementing a new strategy - you have to strengthen relationships, develop useful systems, inspire your organization to follow you, and communicate effectively at all times. Join us, as we will learn about how to:

- How to make your vision become reality and develop a culture and climate that supports that vision... so that others can move from just being compliant to committed.
- How to treat your superstar employees & leaders to keep them right where they are (with you!) and not lose them to other opportunities.
- Implement ideas RIGHT AWAY (without months-long planning) to improve the morale, culture and climate in your school!
- Inspire your staff through creative rewards that contribute to a creative, unique and fun school culture...which all members of the community will feel!

Marzano’s 9 High-Yield Strategies for Instructional Leaders

Presented by Lauren Winter, International and Domestic Instructional and Leadership Coach

Maximize a teacher’s ability to improve student achievement with these research-based instructional strategies! Used strategically and in conjunction with a high-quality curriculum and effective management techniques, these nine high-yield strategies can have a powerful effect on student learning! School leaders will learn more about these strategies and will determine how to support teachers’ and students’ use of the strategies in the classroom.
