Equipping Librarians to Foster Digital Fluency: Understanding and Implementing Computer Science Standards

In this workshop, librarians will gain a foundational understanding of the new Computer Science and Digital Fluency Standards, and learn how to effectively incorporate them into their curriculum. With an increasing reliance on digital technologies, it is essential for students to possess the skills necessary to navigate the digital world safely and productively. Librarians will leave with a variety of lesson ideas and resources that will enable them to align their curriculum with these new standards helping students develop crucial digital literacy, data literacy, and online safety skills.

Presented by Mary Esposito, Associate Professor, School of Education & Human Services, Molloy University

BIBLIOTHERAPY – HANDLING DIFFICULT SUBJECTS THROUGH PICTURE BOOKS

Bibliotherapy provides an opportunity for those who love literature to use it as a vehicle for helping children to deal with the problems of everyday living. It can be used by a therapist in a professional setting or informally by parents, grandparents, librarians or teachers. Any trusted adult can read to or with a child and accomplish the goal of explaining a difficult subject, such as death, divorce, or illness and help the child deal with his or her feelings. In this hands-on workshop, Ms. Lanton will show picture books on various subjects and lead a discussion of the most effective ways to utilize them.

Presented by Sandy Lanton, former teacher, she has earned a BA in Psychology and an MS in Early Childhood Education from Queens College.

1:00 pm – 3:00 pm ~ SCLS Auditorium
