KING AND QUEEN OF GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP

The candidates for King and Queen of Good Sportsmanship were Peggy Miller and David Rumler, Susan Kozel and Barty Magliochetti, and Gerry Harp and James Colasanti. They walked into the gym as our band played the Alma Mater. They remained seated at the far end of the gym until it came time for that thrilling moment when they and the Student Body would know who the King and Queen would be.

Miss Rosenberry revealed that Barty Magliochetti was our King, and she placed the crown on his head. In saying a few words, Barty said that he would try to remain worthy of this honor. Mr. Fisher then announced that our Queen was Gerry Harp and placed the crown on her head. Gerry told everyone how pleased she was and thanked her fellow students for electing her Queen.

After being crowned, Barty and Gerry took their places on the throne to begin their reign over the Student Body. As the Alma Mater was played, the King and Queen and the other candidates walked to a reserved section on the bleachers, which was decorated in maroon and white. We wish Gerry and Barty the best of luck in any future endeavors.

FREE-FALL

A group of seventh graders were discussing the possibility of jumping from an airplane at a height of 30,000 feet. The scientific significance of this was that the parachutist would free-fall until 1500 feet and then pull the rip cord. Science wanted to know what the human reactions would be under such circumstances. The little heroes comments sounded something like this:

"Like a bird without wings."--David Saylor

"I'm too young to die!"--Gail Schneider

"I want to live to see my children get married."--Elaine Teasdale

"Yes, for a price."--Thomas Stein

"I don't like airplanes." -- Donna Strunk

"I get air sick."--Evelyn Ochar

"The pressure would break my little bones, and my goggles would pinch my head!"--Carol Norton

"I scare easily."--Sandra Moyer

"Science doesn't need my, and I like English class."--Edna Miller

"I would like roses on my grave." --Peggy Hunsberger

"Get a boy to do it."--Marcia Kurtz

"There are millions of other people in this world. Which string do you pull?"--Cheryl Howe

"No thanks!"--Peter Fredrickson

"I've a Mother and Father to take care of."--Susan Drumheller

"Yes, If a gun were held on me." --Kenny Cihiy

"One human life isn't worth all of Science."--Joyce Frees

KEEP TO THE RIGHT, PLEASE

When walking through the halls, try and keep to the right. As soon as the lunch bell rings, there's a stampede for the cafeteria, and anyone within the mob's range is plowed under. They don't even bother to stay on one side of the hall. They roam from one side to the other and weave in and out of other people. When these hurry bugs leave the cafeteria, they slow down, but so little that you actually can't believe that they really have, and when they round those corners, lookout! They only care about themselves, and anyone approaching from the opposite direction gets a welcome he isn't at all expecting. When you're in the halls, don't rush around. You'll get where you're going. If you hurry, you might not be around to slow down.

--B. Saylor

HALL CONDUCT

"With a speed of light and a cloud of dust," and there goes Speedy through the halls of our dear old high. He has that eager-to-get-to-class look. His eyes sparkle; he breaths in quick, excited gasps. And where is our young friend headed? Why, he's pounding a path to the cafeteria!

Now we happen to see Georgia Mae, our own Southern belle. She knows that a real lady never hurries, and she doesn't. She's beautiful and charming, but she's got a mile of traffic behind her.

Our next encounter is with Sam Smith. Sam is a swell guy. All the girls like him and want to talk to him. So good ole Sam takes time to talk to each one. No matter where you're going, it seems you can see Sam holding his conversations in the middle of the hall.

Last on our tour is "Wrong Way" Elmer. Elmer has the sweet, innocent look of a lost orphan. He acts like he's lost too. You must be alert, or Elmer will crash right into you. He ignores everyone and pushes on his determined way.

Do you fit into any one of these classifications? Think about it.

--K. Fredericks

POTTSGROVE TO PLAY HCST

Next year, Pottsgrove High School, has the pleasure of being host to the Southeastern District Band. Schools will participate from Montgomery, Chester, Bucks, and Delaware County. Pupils participating will be lodged in the homes of students from our school. The band concert and rehearsals will last three days.

SPORTS

FALCONETTES BEAT OLD-TIMERS 32-24

Friday, December 5, 1958, at seven o'clock in the evening, the girls' basketball team took on the Pottsgrove Alumnae team. The Falconettes won the contest 32-24.

Janice Weaver, Margo Frye, Joy Wert, Joan Egolf, Trudy Miller, Nancy Moore, Barbara Tatman, and Dot Reifsnnyder represented the alumni. Janice Weaver was high scorer for the oldsters with a total of 12 points. Frye, Wert and Egolf each scored 4 points.

Linda Young led the Falconettes by tallying 12 points. The Falconettes had a 10-6 lead in the first quarter and a 28-20 lead in the third portion of the game. Our girls were able to keep an eight point lead through the rest of the game. --P. Panfile

FALCONETTES TOP DANIEL BOONE 46-28

December 10, 1958, was a victorious day for the girls' basketball team. On their own court they beat the Blazerettes 46-28.

Anita Gambino was the hottest forward on the court. She racked up a total of 25 points while Linda Young earned 10 points. We had a 12-8 lead at the end of the first quarter and remained ahead at the half 20-17. By the end of the third quarter the Blazerettes were close behind 30-26, but the Falconettes proceeded to fix this situation by scoring 16 points and allowing Daniel Boone to score only 1 basket.

The J.V. team also won their game. Carol Wentzel scored 14 points and earned the name of high scorer. All forwards on both Varsity and J.V. were able to score. --P. Panfile

UPPER DUBLIN SINKS FALCONS, 64-31

The Falcons dropped their third consecutive Inter-County League game to a towering and fast Upper Dublin quintet. Danny Reider led the Falcons with 4 field goals.

The Junior Varsity also dropped their game. Carl Rudisill dropped 6 points for the losers.

FALCONS SNOWED UNDER BY JENKINTOWN

Jenkintown's height and their superior shooting paid off with a 77-36 victory. The game was played on the winners' court. Barty Magliochetti canned 14 points in a losing battle.

The preliminary game was lost by the Junior Varsity squad by a score of 34-33. Bob Guildin was high score man with 14 points.

LOWER MORELAND HANDS FALCONS SECOND I.C. LOSS, 33-26

The Falcons showed new life but lost their second straight Inter-County League game to Lower Moreland. The Falcons played a game that was, without a doubt, the best game they have played this season. Barty Magliochetti led the Falcon attack with 11 points.

In the preliminary contest, the J.V.'s dropped their fifth straight game to Lower Moreland's Junior Varsity team by a score of 40-14. Wayne Furst paced the losers with 5 points.

--J. Morello

FALCONETTES CRUSH TWIN VALLEY

On December 17, 1958, Anita Gambino dunked nine baskets, and Linda Young scored seven to help gain a 52-38 win over Twin Valley.

Miss Spancalu scored eight baskets and Miss Pawkesk made five for the Twin Valley six.

The Falconettes took a 11-8 lead in the first quarter, but, in the second, Twin Valley outdid Pottsgrove with an 18-20 tally. The Falconettes, bounded back, in the third quarter 36-29 and drove on the final score of 52-38.

In the junior varsity contest, Pottsgrove won with a score of 24-8. Charlene Watson was high scorer with five points, and Barbara Grove helped the cause with five points.

--P. Panfile

FALCONETTES TOP LOWER MORELAND, 39-21

On January 21, 1959, the Falconettes met Lower Moreland for their first league game of the season. This is the first basketball experience the Falconettes have had in the Inter-County League.

The Falconettes consistent high scoring player, Anita Gambino, tallied up 10 points to make the final tally 39-21.

In the second quarter, Pottsgrove allowed its opposition to score only one point while they in turn added 11 more points to the score.

These girls and Mrs. Flamm were very much pleased with the results of this game, but they realize they have their work, but out for them when they meet Upper Dublin on the 28th of January.

--P. Panfile

VARSITY SACKS FACULTY 25-20

One of the features of Color Day 1959 was the annual basketball game played between the men faculty and the boys' varsity basketball team.

The teachers participating in the game this year were Mr. Winterbottom, Mr. Dry, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Radel, Mr. Keenan, Mr. Zimmerman, and Mr. Guilden.

Never once was the faculty ahead, but they put up a good fight. Our boys' varsity team sparked with vitality. At the end of the game, the score was 25-20.

All in all, the basketball game was an event not to be forgotten.

-- E. Pinder

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

The junior high school basketball team opened its basketball season on January 6 against Collegeville-Trappe Junior High.

The boys are practicing very hard under the coaching of Mr. Radel. Mr. Radel hopes that they will have another successful season.

The team is divided into junior varsity and varsity squads. The junior varsity squad is made up of Jerry Basco, Mike Buchholtz, Paul Chryst, August DeNicco, Bobby Gilbert, Wilmer Hoffman, Jim Armstrong, Richard Morello, Melvin Fern, John Greis, Pete Fredrickson, Delvin Buchert, Ronald Fsvinger, John Psota, Jerry Myers, Jimmy Meyers, Jimmy Basile, Barry Goodolf, and Gregory Boone.

The varsity squad is made up of Fred Bicksler, Kenny Christman, Craig Hausman, Dewey Hoople, Mike LaHoda, Kenny Millard, Ralph Minotto, Roger Raspen, Carl Rudisill, Joe Slaby, Bob Sovizal, and Thomas Zadoycho.

ARE YOU A GOOD SPORT?

Have you ever asked yourself this question? Well, if you haven't you should. Only you, yourself truly know your reactions.

In order to be a good sport, you must be able to lose gracefully as well as win. If there is a loss, you should do whatever you can to prevent another.

Senior high clubs

GIRLS' GYM CLUB -- This club is directed by Mrs. Flamm. The aim of the club is to give girls more opportunities to do advanced team tactics.

CHESS CLUB -- Under the direction of Mr. Zimmerman, the club gives members an idea about the fundamentals of chess and to try to give them an opportunity to develop a rather interesting and intellectual hobby.

CHEERLEADING CLUB -- The girls in the Cheerleading Club have been practicing for football games and pep rallies and also for the basketball games. The club is under the supervision of Mrs. Hochstetter.

LIBRARY CLUB -- The members take over the library desk duties during their study halls. During the club period, the members read or check books. The club is under the direction of Mrs. Schaeffer.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA -- Mr. Losch is the head of this new club. The members have participated in the area leadership conference at Pennridge on October 27. They held a dance November 7 and are now conducting a safety campaign.

SCIENCE CLUB -- This club is making a cosmotron which they expect to use for physics and chemistry classes. They have been working on rocket propellents. Mr. Guldin heads this club.

ATTENTION!

Applications for membership into the Pottsgrove High School Future Teachers of America Club are not being accepted.

Further information is posted on 10th and 11th grade bulletin boards.

--M. Mcletress

T. V. AND MOVIE REVIEW CLUB -- The members read over TV and movie reviews from the papers and discuss stage plays and films from the past and present. They try to point out what the audience should look for in an actor before passing judgment. Mr. Raymond directs this club.

ARTS AND CRAFTS -- Arts and Crafts is an all year club directed by Miss Birkinbine. Some of the members are working on leather objects such as belts and slippers. Other members are making metal into beautiful pieces of jewelry, while still others are making pottery vases and dishes. Among the other arts and crafts of this club are water coloring, drawing, pastels, and architectural designing. This club meets every Wednesday during the first period. It's a fascinating and interesting club to belong to.

GIRLS' WOOD SHOP AND METAL SHOP -- The wood shop is under the direction of Mr. Cook, and the metal shop is headed by Mr. Keenan. They teach the girls how to use the various tools and machines in our shops.

PHOTOGRAPHY SHOP -- This club has been busy taking pictures of our school functions. Mr. Radel has also been teaching the members how to develop pictures.

SCHOOL SERVICE CLUB -- The chief purpose of the club is to help keep our school clean. Mr. Eichnor runs this club.

TYPING CLUB -- Mrs. Wenhold has been teaching the members the fundamentals of typing. They are also going to learn how to make designs with a typewriter later on in the year.

SAYINGS

Courage consists not in hazarding with fear, but being resolute in a just cause. --Plutarch--

STUDENT COUNCIL NEWS

At the present time, the Pottsgrove High School Student Council has formed two committees.

One committee is working on improving the handbook. If you have any suggestions, please notify your council representative.

The second committee is writing a constitution which is to serve as a basis for future Student Councils of Pottsgrove. ---M.A. Rozsas

F.T.A. NEWS

On January 8, 1959, the Future Teachers of America held the first meeting for the new year. Plans were made for writing a constitution. Qualifications for membership into the F.T.A. were set.

A person accepted as a member has to meet the following standards. He must be in the senior high school, have a B average in citizenship and a C average in major subjects, and must participate in at least one extra-curricular activity. ---M.A. Moletress

F.T.A. DANCE

The Future Teachers of America of Pottsgrove High School will sponsor a record hop Saturday, January 31, from 8 to 11 P.M. Admission to the dance, which will be held in the high school cafeteria will be $.25. Refreshments will be on sale in the cafeteria. ---M.A. Rozsas

F.H.A. NEWS

F.H.A., which stands for Future Homemakers of America, has just completed a project of sending toys, clothing, and other articles to Crossnore, North Carolina. The articles were sold at a price listed by the owner of the store. The girls in F. H. A. are now planning to make Easter baskets and more clothing.

LEADERS' CLUB GOES TO WEST CHESTER

The Leaders' Club sponsored by Mrs. Flamm and consisting of girls from the tenth and eleventh grades, went to West Chester State Teachers' College on January 7, 1959 to see the Olympic Men and Women's Gymnastic Team.

The team, originally from Finland, fascinated the girls with their breath-taking stunts on the different apparatuses. The men performed their feats on the horizontal bar, the hose, and the rings. The women performed their feats on the balancing bar and the parallel bar. Both the men and the women did free standing exercises.

The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Flamm and Mrs. Hochstetter.

Junior high clubs

CHECKERS CLUB -- Mr. Greulich, who can play a mean game of checkers, is in this club, the students are playing against each other and will hold a tournament within the school.

MATH CLUB -- The Math Club meets in room 105 and is supervised by Mr. Moyer. In this particular club, the students are studying geometric designs, bisecting lines and angles, and working out trick problems with a math basis. In the future, they will do scale drawings, problems involving square roots, and a brief history in the progress of measurement.

WELFARE CLUB -- The director of this club is Miss Hill. She gives her expert advice at the Home Economics Department. The members are making stuffed toys for needy organizations.

SCIENCE CLUB -- Mrs. Glutz and her group of future scientists meet in room 123. At present, they are making satellites and rockets, performing chemical experiments, and studying reptiles. Later on, they are planning to go into astronomy and electricity.

STORY TELLING -- Mr. Nelson heads this club in room 205. These students tell stories every week. They are working on a club booklet which will contain names of the members; it will also contain the winning stories and plays.

FLOWER CLUB -- Mrs. Mogel is the expert on the flower world in room 206. She is teaching members how to arrange flowers. The members of this club made the decorations for the Halloween dance. They also discuss protection and proper care of flowers.

DEBATING CLUB -- In room 209, Mrs. Horn heads a group of students which will eagerly discuss any subject. Mrs. Horn divides the room into two groups and, from then on, it's no holds barred.

HOBBY CLUB -- Room 210 is the meeting place for this club. Mr. Riddle instructs the members in building model airplanes, boats, and cars. The models are made out of such materials as plastic and balsa wood.

HOBBY AND MOTH COLLECTING -- In room 216, Mr. Schneider heads a group of moth-headhunting students. The students make models, sketchings, and drawings of different moths. Two of the students are interested in collecting moths, gathering their cocoons, and reading about their habits.

DANCE CLUB -- Mr. Giangiacomo is a man with sore feet after giving dancing lessons to students in the boys' gym. Students learn different types of dancing.

TRAVEL CLUB -- In room 208, students discuss different monetary features of various countries. They have seen films on Holland, France, England, and about some of the strange customs of natives. The teacher who heads this interesting club is Mr. Dry.

DRAMATIC CLUB -- On January 18, the Dramatic Club of Pottsgrove Junior High School presented two plays for the Student Body.

The first was entitled "Orville's Big Date." The cast included William Tag-leaver, Orville; Cheryl Howe, his sister Beatrice; Loretta Hobbs, Vivian; and Surlee Tosher, Ethel.

The second play was entitled "Boy Meets Family." The characters were Polly Wombly, Cheryl Smith; Dorothy Leopold, Mildred the maid; John Stahl, Lancelot Oake; Ginger Loecker, Mrs. Wombly; Jerry Myers, Mr. Wombly; Joanne Bucciaglia, Vera Wombly; and Donald Sematis, Ned Wombly.

The club advisor is Miss Marilyn Cronin.

The Student Body enjoyed the program very much. --S. Kozel

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Abraham Lincoln was one of the world's truly great men. Under his leadership the American Union was preserved. War only made Lincoln believe more strongly that a democracy is the best form of government. In his Gettysburg Address, and in other speeches and writings, he expressed the deepest beliefs of the American people. He also created some of the finest examples of American Literature. Lincoln had great power as president, but he never lost touch with the common people. He never hated anyone and never wanted revenge. In spite of Lincoln's high position, millions of people, even in his own time, knew him as "Honest Abe" and "Father Abraham."

Abraham Lincoln was born on February 12, 1809, on a farm where Hodgenville, Kentucky stands today. We know little about the family of his mother, Nancy Hanks Lincoln. But we know that his father, Thomas Lincoln, was descended from an old and respected American family. The families of several of his children have since played important and honorable parts in the history of Massachusetts.

The Lincoln family lived for two years on the farm where Abraham was born. Then they moved to a farm on Knob Creek, ten miles away, where they stayed until young Abraham was seven years old. Abraham did the work that a boy of his age could do and spent a little time in school.

Much has been made of the fact that Lincoln began his life in a log cabin. This fact is usually taken to mean that he rose from poverty to greatness. But many families in central Kentucky lived in log cabins during the early 1800's. The Lincolns were as well off as most of their neighbors. Their children were probably well fed and well clothed for that period.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

Because Washington was a great general and a fine president, his mansion at Mount Vernon became a national shrine. First he became a general. Then, in 1789, he became the first President of the United States. After eight years in the White House, he went back to Mount Vernon to enjoy the life he loved.

Within three years, he died and was buried on the grounds of his home. Today thousands of people from all over place wreaths at his tomb and pay their respects. They honor him as one of the greatest men of all time. In school, he was the best in whatever he did. Let's all try to live up to his standards.

VALLEY FORGE

Valley Forge is one of the most historic spots in the United States. At Valley Forge, the soldier of the Continental Army, who fought for American freedom in the Revolutionary War, weathered a terrible winter and lived to fight successfully against the English. This was in the winter of 1777 and 1778.

General George Washington commanded the American troops and spent the winter at Valley Forge with them.

In the fall of 1777, the British forces defeated the Americans at Philadelphia and occupied that city. General Washington withdrew his troops to Valley Forge for the winter. They made camp in log huts. When the severe winter set in, the huts offered little protection from the cold and snow. There was not enough food, and many of the men had no shoes and walked on the icy ground with bleeding feet. General Washington set such an example of courage to his men that most of them stuck it out. Only a few deserted.

When spring came, the Americans were ready to fight again. In the winter of 1778, Valley Forge became the first military training camp in United States history. Here General Baron von Steuben became the "drill-master" of the American army.

P.T.A. FATHERS' NIGHT

Mrs. C. Marcus Myers presided at the January monthly meeting of the Pottsgrove High School P.T.A.

The theme for the meeting was "Fathers' Night." To follow this out, the secretary's and treasurer's reports were given by male members of the organization.

Plans were made for a record hop to be held in January.

Entertainment was furnished by a Barbershop Quartet composed of Leon Hausman, John Kalwaie, C. Linford Richards, and Charles Flickinger.

The highlight of the evening was an address by the Rev. Clarence Rahn from Temple, Pa. His talk was entitled "Cherry Pie for Supper." Reverend Rahn made his part of the program entertaining by injecting humor into his delivery.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

Many people have many different ideas and superstitions. Some believe their every-day life is governed by the solar system. This science, called Astrology, has never been proved true. However, below is a sample of it.

Persons born under the sign:

Aries -- March 20 to April 20, are noted for their energy and push. They are builders of air castles, thinkers and leaders.

Taurus -- April 20 to May 21, are fearless, kind, gentle, and pessimistic.

Gemini -- May 21 to June 21, are skilled with hands, kind, generous, and make excellent teachers and speakers.

Cancer -- June 21 to July 22, are endowed with strong determination and intuition, ambitious and restless, fickle in love and should never marry early.

Leo -- July 22 to August 23, are dignified, faithful, courteous and brave.

Virgo -- August 23 to September 23, are orderly, systematic, active, loyal, generous, affectionate and good scholars.

Libra -- September 23 to October 23, are well-balanced, handsome, graceful, tactful, gifted, peace lovers. Dislike hard work and careless in money matters.

Scorpio -- October 23 to November 23, are self-controlled, ambitious, polite, sensible and courteous. Love praise and flattery.

Sagittarius -- November 23 to December 21, are honest, confident, fond of sports and impulsive.

Capricornus -- December 21 to January 20, are musically inclined, cold, slow, pessimistic, economical and usually succeed in business.

Aquarius -- January 20 to February 18, are calm, quiet, pleasing and seldom ill-tempered. Greatest fault is procrastination.

Pisces -- February 18 to March 20, are trustworthy, pure of mind, fickle, natural lovers and are easily led.
