- Mesa Cloud analyzes high school transcripts and schedules through a nightly scan of data and automatically flags concerns.
- High school counselors are still evaluating transcripts against graduation requirements, endorsements, and CTE programs of study; however, Mesa Cloud provides “checks and balances” for counselors and students.
- Further efficiency would permit counselors to spend more time advising on mental health, socio-emotional wellness, and postsecondary options like college or a career.

We’re notifying parents, we’re triaging, we’re asking for their assistance and we’re inviting them to come meet with us and to talk with their child,” she [Farber] said. “But when it comes to students accessing mental health... it’s largely upon the parents to find those resources.”
