

Healthcare Professional

Health Science Education is a comprehensive program designed to meet the current and projected needs of the healthcare industry. Curriculum concepts incorporate technological advances to motivate students and prepare them to pursue a career as a future health professional, emphasizing various healthcare domains. Students are encouraged to seek work-based learning opportunities to support their areas of interest in healthcare.

Career	Required Education	*2021 Median Pay
Dental Hygienist	Associates	$77,810
Doctor (Medical)	Doctorate	$208,000
EMT/Paramedic	HSDiploma+	$36,930
Licensed Practical Nurse	HSDiploma+	$48,070
Pediatrician	Doctorate	$208,000
Physician Assistant	Masters	$121,530
Registered Nurse	Bachelors	$77,600
Respiratory Therapist	Associates	$61,830
Veterinarian	Doctorate	$100,370
X-Ray Technician	Associates	$61,980

*Salary information from U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics

Course Levels

Business/Industry Credential available through Coursework:

First Aid
OSHA 10-Hour Industry Certification (Healthcare)
Stop the Bleed
Basic Life Support