

Strategies for Title I Schools

To ensure that parents/guardians of students participating in Title I programs are provided with opportunities to be involved in their children's education, the Superintendent or designee shall:

- a) Involve parents/guardians of participating students in the joint development of the Title I local educational agency (LEA) plan and the process of school review and improvement.
- b) Provides coordination, technical assistance, and other support to assist schools in planning and implementing effective parent involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance.
- c) Builds school and parent capacity for strong parental involvement.
- d) Coordinates and integrates Title I, Part A parental involvement strategies with parental involvement strategies of other programs.
- e) Conducts, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parental involvement policy in improving the academic quality of the schools served, including identifying barriers to greater participation by parents in Title I activities; uses the findings of the evaluation to design strategies for more effective parental involvement; and revises, if necessary, the Title I parental involvement policies.
- f) Involves parents in activities of schools served by Title I.

Strategies for Non-Title I Schools

For each school that does not receive federal Title I funds, the Superintendent or designee shall, at a minimum:

- a) Help parents develop skills to use at home that support their children's academic efforts and social development.
- b) Provide parents with techniques and strategies that they may utilize to improve their children's academic success and to assist their children in learning at home.
- c) Build consistent and effective communication between the home and the school so parents may know when and how to assist their children in learning at home.
- d) Train teachers and administrators to communicate effectively with parents.
