

PROVISIONS RELATING TO ALL EMPLOYEES

ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATION – PERSONAL LEAVES

AR 4361.2

Personal leaves granted to SBCEO employees shall be used as permitted in this administrative regulation, other policy or SBCEO regulation, or applicable collective bargaining agreement. For the purpose of any personal leave offered pursuant to state law, a registered domestic partner shall have the same rights, protections, and benefits as a spouse and protections provided to a spouse's child shall also apply to a child of a registered domestic partner. (Family Code 297.5)

Whenever possible, employees shall request personal leaves in advance and prepare suitable instructions, including lesson plans as applicable, for a substitute employee.

Bereavement

Employees are entitled to a leave of up to three days, or five days if travel of 350 miles or more or out-of-state travel is required, upon the death of any member of the employee's immediate family. No deduction shall be made from the employee's salary, nor shall such leave be deducted from any other leave to which the employee is entitled. (Education Code 44985, 45194)

Members of the immediate family include: (Education Code 44985, 45194)

1. The mother, father, stepmother, stepfather, grandmother, grandfather, or grandchild of the employee or of the employee's spouse or domestic partner
2. The employee's spouse or domestic partner, son, son-in-law, daughter, daughter-in-law, stepchild, brother, sister, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law
3. Any relative living in the employee's immediate household

At the employee's request, bereavement leave may be extended under personal necessity leave provisions as provided in the section "Personal Necessity" below. (Education Code 44981, 45207)

Personal Necessity

Employees may use a maximum of ten days of their accrued personal illness/injury leave (sick leave) during each school year for reasons of personal necessity. (Education Code 44981, 45207)

Acceptable reasons for the use of personal necessity leave include:

1. Illness, preventive care, or other need of a member of the employee's family, as defined in Labor Code 245.5 (Education Code 44981; Labor Code 246.5)
2. Death of a member of the employee's immediate family when the number of days of absence exceeds the limits set by bereavement leave provisions (Education Code 44981, 45207)

3. Death of a close personal friend or a member of the employee's family not included in the definition of immediate family as defined in the bereavement leave provision (Education Code 45194, 44985)
4. An accident involving the employee or the employee's property, or the person or property of a member of the employee's immediate family (Education Code 44981, 45207)
5. Appearance in any court or before any administrative tribunal as a litigant, party, or witness under subpoena or other order (Education Code 45207)
6. Fire, flood, or other immediate danger to the home of the employee
7. Observance of organized religious holiday, event, or activity with a maximum of five days per fiscal year
8. Matters related to adoption/paternity

An employee may use up to a maximum of five of the ten personal necessity days of the employee's accrued personal illness/injury (sick leave) during each school year for reasons of a compelling nature for which no alternative other than absence is available to the employee.

Such personal compelling leave shall not be granted for purposes of personal convenience, for the extension of a holiday or vacation, or for matter which can be taken care of outside of working hours.

Such personal compelling leave shall not be used for work stoppage, other concerted activities, nor for gainful employment. The particular date/s on which personal compelling leave may be taken is subject to advance approval by the immediate supervisor. In absence of shortage of substitutes, if applicable, no other restrictions apply.

Any employee requesting leave for compelling personal importance shall request such leave five days prior to the absence from the employee's immediate supervisor. In cases of emergency or circumstances beyond the employee's control, this requirement shall be waived, provided the employee notifies the employee's immediate supervisor as soon as possible.

Leave for personal necessity may be allowed for other reasons at the discretion of the County Superintendent of Schools or designee. However, personal necessity leave shall not be granted for purposes of personal convenience, for the extension of a holiday or vacation, or for matters which can be taken care of outside of working hours. The County Superintendent of Schools or designee shall have final discretion as to whether a request reflects personal necessity.

Advance permission shall not be required of an employee in any case involving the death of a member of the employee's immediate family, an accident involving the employee's person or property or the person or property of a member of the employee's immediate family, or the illness, preventive care, or other need of a member of the employee's family. (Education Code 44981, 45207)

For any leave that is planned, or where the need for leave is foreseeable, an employee shall notify the County Superintendent of Schools or designee in advance. In all other circumstances, the employee shall notify the County Superintendent of Schools or designee of the need for the leave as soon as practicable.

After any absence due to personal necessity, the employee shall verify the absence by submitting a completed and signed SBCEO absence form to the employee's immediate supervisor.

An employee shall be granted leave with pay to appear in court as a witness other than a litigant or to respond to an official order from another governmental jurisdiction for reasons not brought about through the connivance or misconduct of the employee. Such an employee shall receive the difference between the employee's regular earnings and any witness fees received.

When advance notice is not feasible or an unscheduled absence occurs, the employee shall, within a reasonable time after the absence, provide documentation evidencing the judicial proceeding from the court or government agency setting the hearing, the district attorney or prosecuting attorney's office, or the victim/witness office that is advocating on behalf of the victim. (Labor Code 230.2)
