

Personnel -- CertifiedPublication or Creation of Materials

Staff members submitting articles for publication in which the school or its programs are identified shall clear such articles with the Superintendent. The school district retains all rights and legal claims to and on all products, copyrights, patents and all other items of intellectual property created by its employees on the job with or without the assistance of school district resources.

(cf. 4132.1 - Copyrights and Patents)