Learning Behaviour - Respectful/Resilient/Resourceful/Reflective/Relationships

Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3E	Scarlett	Resilience	Scarlett has been working really hard to improve her times tables. She now even asks for more multiplication questions so she can practise.
	Zak	Respectful	Zak has become much better at ignoring distractions around him. Even when his friends are not following the learning behaviours, he is trying much harder to make sure he is.
3G	Emily & Nell	Resilient	This half term Ms. García has seen these girls being super resilient, especially when they have not been feeling particularly well. They try their best and join in with the class, showing perseverance - well done, girls.
3U	Aishi	All 5 R's	Aishi is a student who shows the best of herself at all times. She is responsible and always offers to help others, she is reflective as the progress in her writing shows and she is resilient in the way she takes to any challenge put before her. Keep being amazing!
	Harshitha	Responsible and resourceful. Be curious!	Harshitha has made and presented a quiz about time maths problems to the class. She took her curiosity and made a fun quiz to share her maths skills with the class. Well done Harshitha.
	Halima	Reflective and Resilient	Halima has been reflective and resilient in Science this week and produced a good explanation on states of matter with detailed scientific working. Keep it up.
4D	Vivaan, Sophie, Siona and Nilan	Golden rules	For consistently showing positivity and kindness towards others. They are always ready to learn and participate in class discussions. Well done.
	Ishan	Resilient and reflective	Ishan has put more effort into his writing this week, he has written a fantastic informal letter based on the Vikings, using fronted adverbials. Well done.
4L	Adelina and Aarush	Relationships	It has been good to hear that both Adelina and Aarush have shown good sportsmanship whilst playing foursquare this week. They have congratulated others and have been fair in their decisions.
	Zayaan	Reflective	I was very impressed with Zayaan today in our sprinting lesson. Zayaan coached his partner well to help them with their sprinting starting position and then used the same technique well himself. Great job!

4P	Aaron	Reflective	Aaron shared some great ideas with the rest of the class when completing our shared write. Well done for considering how the character would be feeling by linking it to the prior events in Viking Boy.
	Nandhika	All 5Rs	Nandhika is a positive, selfless member of 4P. She is always willing to share her brilliant ideas, consistently wants to uplevel her learning by using the 3Bs to help her and completes every task with a big smile on her face!
	Wojciech, Eren, Samuel, Joshua, Reni and Arnav	Home Learning Resourceful/Reflective	From Ms Sawyerr - These children consistently bring in their home learning on time every week. They also use a range of ways to complete their home learning, including uploading it to Google Classroom. Thank you for being so resourceful and to broaden your curiosity by completing this home learning.
5F	Anuska	Reflective	Anuska made lots of thoughtful and considered edits to her poem this week, and demonstrated how her editing skills continue to grow. She is aiming high with her spellings and Ms Fairtlough is very proud!
	Ayse	Relationships	Ayse showed her thoughtfulness and kindness this week as she asked her teacher to check in with another child who she knew was feeling upset. Thank you for your empathy Ayse.
5I	Kyiah and Siva	All 5'Rs	These children have shown great dedication in their writing this term. Every time they write a new piece of writing they always broaden their vocabulary and use amazing adjectives. KEEP IT UP!
	Aratrika	Resourceful	Aratrika showed excellent curiosity this week. The class was challenged to dig deeper in a reasoning task. Aratrika went home and further researched about 3D shapes and shared her evidence to Mrs Iwin. What an outstanding attitude to have.
5K	Ayesha and Iman	Reflective and Resourceful	Ayesha and Iman have taken all the feedback given to them constructively and have made impressive progress in their editing skills! Well done girls!
	Aythen and Harsh	Resilience	Aythen and Harsh have made amazing progress in their forehand skills while playing tennis. Keep up your enthusiasm and energy!
6A	Eshaan and Sekinha	Respectful	For engaging and asking insightful questions during 'inspire me' day.

	Aryav	Reflective	In Guided Reading this week Aryav has provided reasoned justifications for his views and has supported them with references from the text
6H	Muhammad	Year 6 production	Mohamed has had a very enthusiastic approach to the year 6 production and is keen to take part in the show and bring his sense of humour to the stage.
	Rufus	Reflective	I have been very impressed with your learning behaviour this week. Well done for being engaged in lessons and taking the time to complete all your learning to a very high standard. Keep it up!
6M	Benjamin	Curiosity	During the Inspire Me Day, Benjamin asked lots of interesting questions to the speakers and they were very impressed with his curiosity and high level questions he asked them as well as his good knowledge of finance and the economy.
	Meera and Avni	Relationships and Resourceful	These children were very helpful to their peers during a PE lesson. Avni helped a pupil who had an injury during the lesson and Meera helped to finish the race for another pupil who also got an injury during a race.
Miss Waxer	Anvi	Relationships	A massive thank you to Avni for inspiring a year 3 pupil.
