| Class | Child's Name  | Type of Merit                      | Merit   |
|-------|---|------------------------------------|---|
| 3E    | Zak   | Resilience                         | Zak stepped in at the last minute during Sports Day to cover an event that a classmate no longer wanted to do. Thank you Zak for being so kind and brave, Miss Emery was very proud of you!   |
|       | Noah  | Resilience                         | Noah showed fantastic resilience yesterday when he got back up after falling during his race and still finishing 2nd. He then filled in at the last minute for a child who was absent when he agreed to run in the relay. Thank you and well done Noah!   |
| 3G    | Georgiabel,Danick, Reid,Miracle,Beau              | All 5RS                            | These children were amazingly supportive to the children running the races yesterday at Sports Day and did their very best in their own races. Well done to you!  |
| 3U    | Ethan,Hunter andSasha                                 | Relationships                      | This week these boys have been showing good relationships in all of our sporting activities. Whenever Sasha has been unsure, Ethan and Hunter have made sure that he knows what to do. Thank you boys.  |
|       | Sara, Aditi   | resourceful                        | Both of these girls have been showing their resourcefulness this week and have been sharing their character designs and drawings with me. They have amazing art skills and Sara has been working on creating her own film that she wants to share with the class, which I look forward to seeing when it is complete. |
| 4D    | Jason, KanavandMithanya                               | Relationshipandresourceful | These children helped with a lot of the organisation for the Sports' day activities so Mrs Sahai was able to take the class on time. Thank you for your amazing support!  |
|       | Luca,Maxwell,Sophie,Olive,Halima andSiona | All 5RS                            | These children were very supportive to their classmates during our Sports' day activities and did their very best in their own races. Well done and keep it up!   |
| 4L    | Mohamed   | Resilience                         | Mohamed showed great resilience this Thursday in sports afternoon and put a lot of effort into popping all of his balloons in the balloon race.   |

|------------|--------------------------------------|------------------------------|--|
|            | Lalithsai                     | Resourceful                  | Lalithsai has been a great team player this week. He substituted for a friend in his sports afternoon race and did amazing. Well done Lalithsai!   |
| 4P` | Iqra                          | Resilience                   | Iqra has tried really hard this week with her test papers and completed them all with a big smile. Well done Iqra, we are very proud of you.   |
|            | Aleema                        | Reflective                   | Aleema voiced some great contributions to the JIGSAW lessons this week. Well done for being courageous and curious.  |
|            | Mihika                        | All 5Rs                      | Mihika went above and beyond to motivate and encourage her friends this week with the Sports Day activities. Thank you for setting a fantastic example to the rest of the children!  |
| 5F  | Emma, Nikita and Kaelynn      | sports                       | Emma and Nikita immediately took to their roles as sports captains amazingly well this week. They were so helpful setting up all the equipment and explaining the activities. Kaelynn showed great sportsmanship at sports day, showing resilience, a can-do attitude and supporting others too!               |
|            | Archie                        | Resilience                   | Despite not feeling the most confident at Art, Archie was resilient this week and created some beautiful designs of an Ancient Greek vase in his book before fully realising it yesterday when he made it out of clay. Ms F looks forward to seeing how it turns out today when you paint it Archie! Well done |
| 5I  | Vihaana and Aarush            | Resourceful                  | Who used their fantastic creativity and sculpted a beautiful Ancient Greek vase. They perfected the pinching and smoothening technique to get the shape they wanted. Mrs Iwin can't wait to see what the final product looks like, after painting today.   |
|            | Zidane, Akash, Umar and David | Relationships and being kind | These children took on their roles as sports captains this week and displayed outstanding sportsmanship. In every team activity they were cheering for their houses and other teammates too. What fantastic leadership skills boys!  |
|            | Samanta                       | Resilient                    | Samanta showed excellent perseverance this week in her sporting activities. There were days when she was not feeling well and with great support she managed to complete her activities with a smile. Great effort !   |
| 5K  | Luke                                 | Resilience and Relationships | Both Luke and Iman listened well to the instructions on how to make a Greek vase and were resilient and calm when creating their own. Luke and Iman also helped other children in the class when they were struggling. Thank you both :)   |
|            | Iman                                 |                              |  |

|-----------|-----------------------------|---------------|--|
| 6A | Methuki                     | Resilience    | Despite choosing to race at the last minute Methuki tried her absolute best to not only finish but cheer others on in their own activities too. Well done!   |
|           | Soham, Adam, Sai and Eleora | Relationships | For showing fantastic sportsmanship by encouraging others, communicating and working effectively in whichever groups they were put into this week. Thank you for making sports week enjoyable for 6A!  |
| 6H | Zain and Kyrese             | Relationships | Zain and Kyrese have had a fantastic attitude this week. They have tried their best in every activity and have been encouraging other members of the class to do their best as well. Thank you for being great role models this week.  |
| 6M | Avni                        | All 5'Rs      | Avni was excellent yesterday during Sports day. She helped set up for the events, bringing children from Flower house to take part in their events, clearing up after events and cheering and morale boosting participants. You did a fantastic job Avni. Thank you so much and I am very proud of your hard working ethics. |
