FEDERAL WAY
PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Each Scholar: A voice. A dream. A BRIGHT future.

Who We Are

- Administrators who provide a safe, supportive, and positive K-8 learning environment.
- Teachers and support staff who dedicate time for professional learning, collaboration, and the development of culturally responsive integrated curriculum.
- Student-scholars who take ownership in their growth through project-based, collaborative learning opportunities.
- Families who are active partners in the shared responsibility of ensuring student success.
- Community partnerships that support student engagement inside and outside the classroom.

What We Offer

- Project Based Learning
- Authentic Experiences
- Integrated Curriculum
- STEAM (STEM+Arts)
- Yearly Field Trips
- 1:1 Technology (currently at 6th-8th grades)

What We are Made of

Self-motivated students who explore, create, take risks, and work hard individually and collaboratively.

Energetic students and families making an impact on the development of a cutting edge, 21st century learning experience.

What We Have Accomplished

Nautilus continues to have high achievement on the Science SBA.

"I like Nautilus because of the one on one time my teachers spend with me."

- Eric Garrity, NAU Student

Location

Just north of Dash Point Road, overlooking Puget Sound. Part of the Federal Way Public Schools.
