

OTHS Special Education Department Supply List 2023-2024

All Special Education courses will require a three-ring binder with college ruled paper and a pair of headphones that will work with the student's device.

*If there are additional teacher-specific supplies required for a course, that information will be shared with students at the start of the semester.