

PROCLAMATION

*Hoover Board of Education
National Women's History Month 2023*

Whereas, American women of every race, class, and ethnic background have made historic contributions to the growth and strength of our Nation in countless recorded and unrecorded ways;

Whereas, American women have played and continue to play a critical economic, cultural, and social role in every sphere of the life of the Nation by constituting a significant portion of the labor force working inside and outside of the home;

Whereas, American women were significant in the establishment of early charitable, philanthropic, and cultural institutions in our Nation;

Whereas, American women of every race, class, and ethnic background served as early leaders in the forefront of every major progressive social change movement;

Whereas, American women have served our country courageously in the military;

Whereas, American women have been leaders, not only in securing their own rights of voting and equal opportunity but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the industrial labor movement, the civil rights movement, and other movements, especially the peace movement, which create a more fair and just society for all; and

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Hoover Board of Education joins the National Women's History Alliance and other organizations in proclaiming March 2023 as National Women's History Month in Hoover City Schools.
