Maximum enrollment: 20

Minimum enrollment: 10

Overview: A CHCA service immersion project serving preschool/primary school children in Greater Cincinnati

- Course Goals:
- Build community by engaging with young children as role models.
 - Create mini lessons for preschool children to teach them to observe and ask questions about animals in the natural environment.
 - Create bonds with young children through a “zoo buddy” field trip to the Cincinnati Zoo.

Description:

Teens can serve as important role models for young children. Students will learn more about early childhood education and will have opportunities to contribute to the community through service work in early childhood education and organizations that support children in the Greater Cincinnati Area.

Day 1: Foster appreciation for the importance of early childhood education. Plan for visits to primary classrooms.

Days 2: Preschool/primary classroom service experience and/or visit to child service organization

Day 3: Zoo fieldtrip with preschool/primary children.

This course is well suited to: Students who enjoy being with young children.

Cost: $130

Additional costs: Students will need to bring a packed lunch each day

Other Information: All days are normal drop off and pick up at school.
