Chorus

The chorus, also under the direction of Mr. Gresham, took part in the program presented on December 19, and had much to do in making it a success.

Band

The band, under the direction of Mr. Gresham, has had a very successful year. The group furnished music for all athletic contests at Newport, and was one of the main attractions of the program presented on December 19. They also performed at Cusick and Priest River.

Front row (left to right): Donald Johnson, Ray Needham, Jim Hansen, Lillian Bryan, Jim Kofford.

Second row: Ruth Billings, Arthur Manning, Teddy Bryan, Billy Shackelton, Albert Moeser, Louise Gregory, Mr. Gresham.

"The Patsy"

Presented by the Senior Class of '47 on November 22, 1946. Directed by Miss Lucile Lake.

The play centers around Patricia Harrington, J. Gravert, the Patsy, whose life has been overshadowed by her socially minded sister and who is rather neglected by her family. Patsy decides, however, to do some of the things she has wanted to do and to make her own life. She falls in love with her sister's jilted suitor, P. Moeser, Tony Anderson and the plot is centered around Patricia trying to make Tony interested in her.

"You Can't Take It With You"

The Junior Class presented "You Can't Take It With You", on May 2, 1947. Directed by Miss Lake.

Second row: Alice Oscarson, Kathleen Hartman, Mollianne Hupp, Jean Wallace, Marcia Weigelt, Barbara Hansen, Joyce Vanairsdale, Jackie MacArthur.

Third row: George Khtaian, Martin Norstadt, Bruce Hartman, Donald Roberts, Frank Bertz, David Sherman, Wendell Stratton, Miss L. Lake.

The play centers around a typical American home, perhaps not quite typical. It's of a very carefree family and a very noble family mixing. Of course there's a lot of fireworks, income tax collectors, a painter, a snake collector, and a xylophone player. Martin Vanderhoff does indeed have an unusual family.

Football

The Newport Grizzlies had their most successful football season in several years, having only one loss to mar an otherwise perfect record.

The Grizzlies ran roughshod over all county opposition, losing only the last game to Ione 32 to 31.

After gaining the county title, Newport met Otis Orchards High School in a play-off game to decide the Northeast District Champion and won 30 to 6.

Third row: David Sherman, Phillip Moeser, Dick Dodge, Lloyd Johnson, Edgar Moos, Eugene Reed, Dale Shaw, Coach Ricketts.

After their victory over Otis Orchards the Newport team was given a banquet by Guy Manning.

Basketball

Newport had one of its greatest basketball teams this year, as was proven by their showing at the District play-offs at Whitworth.

The Grizzlies had a heavy schedule but came through with twenty-six wins out of thirty-one games.

After winning the county title, Newport went on to win the Northeast District championship.

In the state tournament at Seattle, the Grizzlies lost both of their games by close scores. Lloyd Johnson, center on the Newport five, received honorable mention on the All-Star team.

Coach Ricketts may well be proud of the Grizzlies record this year, and although many of the players will be gone next year, those who remain with the team will be fighting to defend their title.

Members of the team are: Guy Hanson, Bruce Hartman, Lloyd Dahlin, David Sherman, Windy Stratton, Coach Ricketts.

Cheer Leaders

Newport is very proud of their cheer leaders this year. They traveled to every game, even to the state tournament at Seattle, and kept the students behind the team 100% all year.
