Senior Class History

Twelve long, happy years ago eleven students trooped into the first grade to meet Miss Krauber. Their names were: Mildred Bailey, Jim Brigham, Melva Crysler, Irene Davaz, Jo Ann Hansen, Rudolph Heibert, Phil Howe, Ray Johnson, Grant Kimmel, Gale Larson and Goldie Taylor. That year we were proud owners of the playhouse we built.

In the second grade, taught by Miss Hect, we made a scrapbook of our lives. That year we were joined by Mary Clark.

Miss Taylor was our new teacher for the third grade. During the year we organized a rhythm band.

The next year we made clay pottery under the direction of Miss Gill. The only student joining us in the fourth grade was Marcella Poelle.

Miss Johnson helped us over the obstacle of hard arithmetic in the fifth grade. Our new classmates this year were Kenny Scott and Shirley Johnson.

The sixth grade seemed to be a very uneventful year. We were instructed by Miss Stofflat.

In the seventh grade we learned how to make a newspaper under the direction of Miss Stevens.

The last year of grade school was important in two ways: we had our first man teacher, Mr. Chepman, and this was the year we were to join the ranks of the high school students. Bill Cooke, Jewel Knuth, and Ellen Johnson joined us this year.

Our Freshman year found us trying to open lockers. The big event of this year was initiation. As Mr. Moore said, "It looked like a case of measles among the Frosh." This year we were joined by several students from Idaho Hill. They were: Mary Ann Clumpner, June Falk, Mary Ann Oscarson, Vera Strand, Betty Lou Haugen, Delbert Nelson, Gary Bergstrom, Eddie Hamacher, and Earl Miller. We were also joined by Dolores Dahlin, Joyce Payne, Kermit Pierson, Everett Sanburn, Herb Veit, and Carl Graham.

Our Sophomore year found us well into the routine of high school. This year we put on a very successful dance. We were joined by Bob Stevens, Dick Yonck, Merlan Huling, Robert Huling, Ralph Huling, Lilly Rae Daugherty and Beverly Miller.

Senior Class History

As Juniors we were found worrying about finances, for we had to put on a Junior Prom. We chose for our theme "How Deep is the Ocean," and Kenny Scott was crowned King Neptune. We had a wonderful turn out and everyone had a good time. In order to raise money, we had a Junior Revue, which was very successful. New students were Beverly Hall, Marion Taylor and Neil Simpson.

So our school life has gone up until our Senior year. This is the big year for us. We have so many things to do and to look forward to that it keeps us quite busy.

Our Senior Ball was presented on December 8 with "That's My Desire" for a theme. Mary Ann Oscarson was chosen queen of the Ball.

Now we have a sneak and most important, graduation to look forward to. We will put on a play in the spring. Quite a few of us were in the all-high play, as we have been in all the plays throughout high school. Bill Pillers, who served with Uncle Sam, joined us this year.

Our next step now is to find a suitable place for ourselves in the world. We're sure all the friendships we have made will last throughout the years and we will recall many happy memories of school life.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of '51, being sound and sane in mind, hereby decree this to be our last will and testament, and hereby bequeath and convey individually and collectively to the following persons all our possessions, both real and imaginary, to-wit:

Gary Bergstrom wills his chemistry knowledge to Nancy Gordon and he hopes she can use it.

Mildred Bailey wills her quietness to Gladys Richardson.

Jim Brigham wills to Jim Henley his way with the girls.

Mary Clark wills her way with the boys to Doris Brown.

Bill Cooke wills his ability to annoy teachers to Helge Dahlen.

Mary Ann Clumpner wills to Wilburta Hokanson her sweet personality.
Carl Graham wills to Barbara Lincoln his curly hair.

Melva Crysler wills to Nina Oscarson everything except Delbert; she can't give everything away.

Dolores Dahlin wills to Lonna Jones her Cusick fans. (Don't let them gang up on you all at once, Lonna).

Rudolph Hiebert wills his football pep to Jack Bertz.

Lilly Rae Daugherty wills her ability to tell jokes to Joanne Schell.

Phil Howe wills his manager's job to Maynard Funden, and hopes Maynard can keep up the good job.

Irene Davaz wills a few of her acquired pounds to Martha Wallace.

Merlan Huling wills his position on the Ag ladder to Alvin Strange.

June Falk wills everything of hers, except her fur coat, to Ronald France.
Ralph Huling wills his daintiness to Paul Foster.

Beverly Hall wills to Allan Davaz her position as chorus musician. (Don't hit any sour notes, Allan!)

Robert Huling wills his dark, curly hair to Allan Simpson.

Grant Kimmel wills to Jack Payne his deep bass voice.

To Laura Pearce, Jewel Knuth wills her "scatter brain."

Gale Larson wills his trumpet to Jim Baker.

To Hedy Gretener, Beverly Miller wills everything but Johnny.

Mary Ann Oscarson wills her position as head majorette to Louise McIntosh.

To Cleo Dodge, Delbert Nelson wills his position as right end on the football squad. (Mow 'em down, Cleo).

Joyce Payne wills her make-up kit to Hazel Miles.

Marion Taylor wills to Wilma Willner her ambition to be a success.

Class Will

Marcella Poelle wills to Ferol Kubota all of her Home Ec. knowledge.
To Donna Richards, Vera Strand wills her great car driving ability.
Goldie Taylor wills her task as majorette to Idella Heiser.
Ken Scott wills to Freddie Van Winkle his great speed.
Kermit Pierson wills his ability to go steady to Roy Wills.
To David Strayer, Neil Simpson wills his great boxing skill.
Shirley Johnson wills her lovely singing ability to Phyllis Funder.
Herb Veit wills to Lorene Patterson his skill at horseback riding.
Ja Ann Hansen wills to Lois Mull her job as assistant play director.
Ellen Johnson wills to Helen Eng her waitress job.
Dick Yonck wills his basketball position to Glenn Pearce.
Bob Stevens wills to Lynn Walker his cowboy boots.
To Ty Zangraff, Everett Sanburn wills his dark hair.
Eddie Hamacher wills his wise cracks to Tommy Bolin.
Ray Johnson wills his sleepiness to Alex Boyle.

Class Prophecy

Ah, it's 1965! We just received our new atomic "Tel-all" machine, today, and decided to try it out this evening. First of all, I want to find out what happened to our classmates of 1951.

Just watch a minute while I adjust the dial. There! Now settle back and watch.

Our first stop is Hollywood. On the main set of Twentieth Century Fox studios, we find GARY BERGSTROM and GOLDIE TAYLOR rehearsing a scene from their next movie. Gary is a great lover, with Goldie as his leading lady.

On another set we find KENNY SCOTT making a new musical. He sings to the music of GRANT KIMMEL'S "Hot Shots".

Say, what's that bright light shining down there? You say that BOB STEVENS just finished polishing his Oscar, which he received for being the best director of 1964. Just the other night I saw his latest movie, "The Night After the Day Before."

The Club See-See, owned and operated by PHIL HOWE, is the most glamorous west of the Mississippi River; especially since VERA (Bea-Boo) STRAND and JEWEL (Pinky) KNUTH are the main attractions of the floor show. They do their special version of the Samba.

Say, what are we doing here at the University of Idaho? Well, well, if it isn't JOYCE PAYNE. A professor of science, at that? Also at the university is MARIAN TAYLOR. She is fraternity mother for the "Eta Beta Pi's".

DELBERT NELSON, a first-class truant officer, has now been married to MELVA CRYSLER for nine years. Melva owns her own beauty shop and this week has been having a special on "Radioactive" waves.

SHIRLEY JOHNSON has been working in the opera. No, not as a star, but as the private maid to the star soprano.

Wow! Look at that ambulance speed by! Say, wasn't the doctor, RUDOLPH HIEBERT? Looks like a mighty interesting case.

A turn of the dial shows us JIM BRIGHAM, the well known T.V. master of ceremonies, announcing JUNE FALK, the famous cenance player, who will teach you to play in five easy lessons.

CONTINUED

On the political side of the view, we find CARL GRAHAM has become mayor of Blanchard, Idaho. Also BEVERLY HALL is running for vice president on the third party ticket—"You Name It".

Haven't you seen ROBERT HULING'S name in the headlines of the newspapers? He was chosen Mr. America of 1964.

DOLORES DAHLIN has an exciting job. She's secretary for RAY JOHNSON, who manufactures bathing suits. You know, "Bikini's", high prices for a low cut!

RALPH HULING has been entertaining his imported chorus (from Hawaii). His chorus has also brought him quite a bit of money, since he uses it in a burlesque show in the evening.

The other evening I ate supper at Tug Boat Annie's, owned by ELLEN JOHNSON. It's really a neat restaurant!

In the sports scene, we find MERLAN HULING playing fullback for the Cleveland Browns. Boy, what a racket! Merlan has four Cadillacs and two beautiful mansions.

Also, we find DICK YONCK has been playing professional basketball with George Mikan on the Minneapolis Lakers. Poor Dick! He has only two Cadillacs.

Another turn of the dial shows us BILL COOKE leading a life of ease on his South Pacific Island, which he discovered during his hitch in the Navy.

Say speaking of going from hot to cold! What are we doing up here in the Northland? Isn't that GALE LARSON picking himself out of the snow drift? A fur trapper at that! We understand Gale misses the bright spots of the city.

MARY CLARK and MARCELLA POELLE have gone into business manufacturing a new clothing fabric made from sawdust and knotholes. They say it's stronger than nylon. Their slogan is: "We make it fit."

NEIL SIMPSON is a rather unfortunate case. He's working on the road most of the time and was just chosen "King" of the hoboes.

Class Prophecy

The new editor of the Seattle Sun is EDDIE HAMACHER. On his staff is MARY ANN CLUMPNER, who answers letters written by troubled young lovers in her articles, known as 'Ima Lovelorn Specials'.

BEVERLY MILLER has just returned from abroad. The Russian government paid her to make salt for the Siberian salt mines. She perfected her method in Chemistry her senior year.

I met JO ANN HANSEN the other day. Strictly business, you know. She runs a hock shop and has met many interesting people.

Look at that mansion! To think, it's all MILDRED BAILEY'S. It's too bad we all can't marry millionaires.

Hed you heard about LILLY RAE DAUGHERTY'S being in the hospital with a sore throat? It seems that she was hired by the New York Yankees to sit in their section and yell. She got a little excited and ended up with laryngitis.

Look at those bottles of smoke! Who is that filling them? Why KERMIT PIERSON, what are you doing here? It looks like an exciting job.

BETTY LOU UMBARGER is still a wife and also a mother of four children. She manages to keep pretty busy.

Have you seen Admiral EVERETT SANBURN'S picture in the newspapers lately? He is said to be the youngest admiral the Navy has ever had.

Yesterday, I saw IRENE DAVAZ one hundred feet above the ground. Well, it was in a neon sign, advertising her opening night as Roller Skating Champion of the World.

MARY ANN OSCARSON is still married, of course, and just recently started modeling for the Powers Modeling Agency. She models 'Atomic' styles.

Well, the image is fading out on my 'Tel-all' screen and there goes one of the best classes Newport High School ever 'released'. It was lots of fun to see what our classmates have done in the past fifteen years.

Freshman Class

Officers, first semester: President, Stan Lobdell; Vice President, John Krogh; Secretary-Treasurer, Bonnie Funk; Student Council Rep., Lewis Cain. Second semester: President, John Krogh; Vice President, Bill Huling; Secretary-Treasurer, Joyce Krehbiel; Student Council Rep., Don Hiebert.

On September 10, 1951, the Freshmen were officially made members of the Newport High School student body. On that date, the traditional Frosh Initiation was held; this was enjoyed by everyone.

On October 2, the Frosh gave a return dance for the Seniors. There was a good turnout for the occasion.

Sophomore Class

Officers, first semester: President, Cleo Dodge; Vice President, Glenn Pearce; Secretary-Treasurer, Darlene Zangraff; Student Council Rep., Gary Akers. Second semester: President Idella Heiser; Vice President, Nina Oscarson; Secretary-Treasurer, Joanne Schell; Student Council Rep., Glenn Pearce.

On March 30 the Sophomores gave the second dance of their high school career, an April Fools' Dance. The Sophomores spent much time on decorations and had a successful party. Table games for those who didn't dance were an innovation at this party.

Junior Class

Officers, first semester: President, Paul Foster; Vice President, Wilburta Hokanson; Secretary, Tommy Bolln; Treasurer, Allan Simpson; Student Council Rep., Ferol Kubota. Second semester: President, Jim Henley; Vice President, Laura Pearce; Secretary, Barbara Ovens; Treasurer, Allan Simpson; Student Council Rep., Ronald France.

The Juniors had a fairly busy year, sponsoring two performances. These included the annual Junior Prom, held on April 28, and the Junior Revue which was presented on May 12.

Football

This year Newport's team changed from eight-man to eleven-man football by joining the Tri-County League which included Stevens, Spokane, and Pend Oreille counties. The boys did much better than was expected of them their first year in the new league. The team was expected to finish in the cellar, but ended up in fourth place by winning three out of six conference games; it also beat Deer Park in a non-conference game.

Boxing

This year N.H.S. had a boxing team again for the first time in nine years. Despite the fact that only three boys had ever had any ring experience—the Simpson brothers and Leland Bailey—the Grizzlies won six of their ten matches. The mittmen sometimes fought boys who had one, two, or three years' experience, but they won a good share of their bouts. Allen Simpson was the leading fighter with six wins, no losses, and two draws.

Basketball

The Newport High School basketball team had a fairly successful season this year considering the lack of height of the boys. The Grizzlies won 13 games and lost 8, plus a loss to the University of Idaho Freshmen.

The Grizzlies came in second in the P. O. County League by defeating Ione twice and Cusick three times, but the team lost to Metaline Falls three times.

This year's graduation will eliminate all but one of the players on the "A" squad, that one being Glenn Pearce, first string forward. However, many of the "B" squad will be ready for the "A" team next fall.

The top five scorers were: Dick Yonck, with 288 points; Kenny Scott, 219; Glenn Pearce, 173; Gary Bergstrom, 102; and Gale Larson, who scored 71.

Dramatics

The all high play, "Kind Lady", directed by Mr. Roy Pierce, was presented November 17. Miss Herries (Beverly Miller) was unconsciously a victim of the schemes of Henry Abbott (Grant Kimmel). The supporting cast, which helped to make the melodrama a success, were Henry's wife, Ada (Jewel Knuth); Mr. and Mrs. Edwards (Ray Johnson and Ann Sowder); Aggie, their daughter, (Bonnie Funk); Rose, the maid, (Lonna Jones); Mr. Foster, (Tom Bolin); Mr. Rosenberg, (Jack Bertz); the Doctor, (Dick Yonck); Miss Herries' niece and her fiance, (Ann Hamacher and Gale Larson); Lucy Weston, her friend, (Hedy Gretener).

Jo Ann Hansen was the assistant play director.

The Senior Class play, "Mr. Pim Passes By", a three-act comedy of confusion caused by Mr. Pim, was presented on May 4 under the direction of Mr. Pierce.

Mary Ann Clumpner portrayed Olivia Marden; Tom Bolin, George Marden; Idella Heiser played the part of Dinah Marden, George's niece; Ralph Huling was Brian Strange, Dinah's sweetheart; Jim Henley, Mr. Pim; Betty Olson acted the part of Lady Marden, George's aunt; Lily Ann Erickson was the maid.

Beverly Miller served as assistant director.

The Thespians presented a one-act play on April 3 entitled "Elmer". Phil Howe played Elmer, who had the misfortune of having three sisters—and if that wasn't enough, two of them were twins, Jeanie and Janie, played by Vera Strand and Beverly Miller respectively. Jewel Knuth was the other sister, Susan. The mother, Mrs. Collier, was portrayed by Jo Ann Hansen; and June Falk was the family maid, Fanny-Belle. Mrs. Phinney was played by Hedy Gretener. Paul Foster and Ken Scott took the parts of Hubert Brown and Russ.
