Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1952, take great pleasure in dedicating this annual to our two faculty advisors, Mr. Roy Pierce and Mr. Walter Lindman, who have aided us in making this, our last year, the best year of our high school career.

FACULTY

Class History

On a September day in 1940, nine members of the current graduating class entered the Newport School for the first time. Miss Sapp was the teacher who taught us our first reading. David Strayer, Allen Davaz, Jim Henley, Jack Bertz, Lonna Jones, Laura Pearce, Louise McIntish, Hedy Gretener, and Hazel Miles were among that happy group.

In the second grade the group was joined by Martha Wallace and Alvin Strange, with Miss Hayley teaching. We had our first worry that year when we were exposed to arithmetic that wouldn't soak in.

In the third grade we learned our multiplication tables and had fun playing Rhythm Band instruments under Miss Taylor's direction.

Mrs. Jones was our fourth grade teacher. There we learned quite a bit about science, geography and history, which made us feel we had grown up quite a bit. New members who joined us that year were Anna Lou Turner, Betty Olson, and Maynard Funden.

In the fifth grade, with the same students, we never knew who Miss Johnson was going to send to the cloak room next for misbehaving.

As sixth graders we were on the top floor, something we had looked forward to for a long time, and had a lot of fun with Miss Cowen. Dick Geaudreau joined us that year for a while.

We had a large class in the seventh grade so they divided our group, with Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Magee as our teachers. New class-mates that year were James Baker and Gladys Richardson.

In the eighth grade we had four different teachers—Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Wicks, Mrs. Mitchell, and our first man teacher during grade school, Mr. Chapman. Wilma Willner and Lowell Self joined us. We had fun at the picnic the last day of school at Beaver Valley, especially when many of us got pushed in the creek with our clothes on and we decided to go swimming for a while. Graduation day found us nervous and excited, all decked out in our new clothes.

Finally the big day came when we entered High School. Most of us were quite red faced about it during the time the mighty seniors took over initiation. Those students joining us here were Jack Payne, Ferol Kubota, Lorene Patterson, Helge Dahlen, Doris Brown, Tom Bolin, Lynn Walker, Lois Mull, Wilburta Hokanson, and Paul Foster. Dick Geaudreau joined us again after being away for two years. We had our first big dance which was quite a success.

Our Sophomore year was very successful, especially when it came to making punch for the Western dance.

We worked hard our Junior year, with many studies, and also our most important dance of the year the Junior Prom. The theme we picked was "Snow White". The girls worked on the table decorations, little plaster of Paris dwarfs, while the boys decorated the gym. We had a good turnout and a wonderful time. New members were Alex Boyle, Wayne Thrasher, and Barbara Ovens.

Our Senior year has been very exciting and busy. Our Senior Ball was held on December 8, 1951. Wilburta Hokanson was Queen, Wayne Thrasher, King; Louise McIntosh and Laura Pearce, Princesses. Alice Gibbons joined us this year. The Senior play, "Take Care of My Little Girl" was given in March. Baccalaureate services on Sunday, May 18, and commencement exercises on May 23 brought our school days in Newport to a close.

Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1952, being of unsound mind and in poor health, due to schoolwork, do hereby bequeath the following:

I, Hedy Gretener, will my cheer leading job and my famous school spirit to June Rusho.

I, Anna Lou Turner, will my English grades to Ann Sowder and Helen Eng.

I, Laura Richards, leave my place in shorthand class to my sister, Donna.

We, Lois Mull and Doris Brown, leave our good grades to Denny Lithgow.

I, Martha Wallace, will my grace and charm to the Sophomore girls.

I, Tom Bolin, will my "flashy" shirts to Jack Burgeson.

I, Wilma Willner, will my driving ability to Gary Akers.

I, Jimmy Henley, will my "hot-rod" to Bob Taylor. Be careful, Bob.

We, Alex Boyle, David Strayer, and Wayne Thrasher, will our jobs as service station attendants to Joanne Schell, Nina Oscarson, and Darlene Olson.

I, Maynard Funden, will my "pin-up" girls to Jerry Roberts.

I, Allen Davaz, will my wide grin to Leona Bergen.

I, Betty Olson, will my "old maid" roles to Phyllis Brittain.

I, Dick Geaudreau, will my FFA position to Frank Rusho.

I, Lowell Self, will my wild hair to Mike O'Brien.

I, Hazel Miles, will my athletic ability to Lewis Veit.

I, Lonna Jones, will my Thespian points to Ann Allan.

I, Ferol Kubota, leave my place on the Honor Roll to Jim Hodges.

I, Louise McIntosh, will my job as pop-corn maker at the cinema to Connie Bennett.

We, Lynn Walker and Alvin Strange, will our ability in woodshop to Lauritz Pillers.

I, Jack Bertz, will my job as editor of the Grizzly Growls to anyone who thinks he can get it out on time.

I, Torchy Hokanson, will my job of washing towels to Coach Caviness.

I, Jack Payne, will my seat on bus No. 6 and all the chewing gum on the bottom of it, to Mary Jane Frease.

I, Bobby Ovens, will my job as editor of The Bruin to Miss Foth, as she does all the work anyway.

I, Paul Foster, will my size 13 shoes to Albert Barnett in hopes that he will will grow into them.

I, Gladys Richardson, will nothing to nobody, because I need everything I have.

I, Barbara Lincoln, will my library job to Arnold Goodell since he always wants to be in the library.

I, Laura Pearce, will my princess crowns to Sharon Bacon.

I, Alice Gibbons, will my ability to graduate mid-term to Bill Worley.

I, Lorene Patterson, will my receipt book to next year's class treasurer.

I, James Baker, will my place at the ping-pong table to Betty Johnson.

I, Helge Dahlen, will my way with the girls to Glenn Pearce.

Prophecy

(The Year 1970)

"Hello Central, give me information. Information? Could you tell me if Anna Lou Turner is still working there?"

"Yes, she is. Just a moment and I will connect you."

"Anna Lou, is that really you? This is Lonna Jones. Remember me?"

"Why, Lonna what are you doing in Newport?"

"I came back to look up some old friends and out of a hunch I decided to try the telephone office. I didn't know if you'd still be here after all these years. How are you, Anna Lou?"

"I'm fine, and now I'm head over the girls at the switchboard and I also do the book-work. Are you still with the Civil Service, Lonna?"

"Yes. I've toured all around the world. Say, what was that sign I saw as I came into town about Cook's Mountain Ski Resort?"

"Lynn Walker owns and operates it. You remember him don't you? He employes Wilma Willner and Hazel Miles as ski instructors. I heard they are pretty good."

"I bet you can't imagine who I saw the other day, Anna Lou. It was Wayne Thrasher. I saw him in Mexico. He's working for some Mexican business firm."

"He always was good in Spanish. Say Lonna, did you hear about Ferol Kubota? She was cheer-leader in high school and college and now her twin daughters are leading the Newport Grizzly Cubs in yells."

"You know Anna Lou, the funniest thing happened the other day. I saw Hedy Gretener in Brooklyn, and guess what! She manages the Brooklyn Dodgers and her team hasn't lost a game in 14 years. She said she saw Bobby Ovens the other day. Bobby is a WAC and claims she saw the world through a port-hole."

"For heaven's sake! Well I have some startling news, too. Jim Henley has taken over his father's business. He has a sideline too. He has a dance band and he calls them the Merrymakers."

"Well speaking of music, Anna Lou, when I was in Connecticut I saw Alice Gibbons. She has a record shop. The day I was there she was having a special on Paul Foster's records of years ago. I think one of them was "On Top of Old Smokey."

"Did you know, Lonna, that Louise McIntosh is running for Prosecuting Attorney of Pend Oreille County? Also, Alvin Strange is the Agriculture Agent for this county. They are both doing pretty well."

"I see that Barbara Lincoln is surely happy. I saw her the other day in Coeur d'Alene. She is happily married and her husband has a yacht on the lake for tourist rides. She said she saw Laura Richards the other day at Colville and Laura has the cutest Novelty Shop there."

Prophecy

CONTINUED

"Well, speaking of being happily married, Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Hamacher—Mrs. Hamacher is the former Betty Olson you know—are living on a farm and their son, Eddy Jr., is only a Freshman and he made the football team."

"Anna Lou did you hear about Jim Baker? He is a guard at Alcatraz and he is trying to work up to Warden. Imagine!"

"Not really! Well Lonna, Dick Geaudreau is Chief-of-Police at Blanchard and he has the nicest little town."

"Anna, when I was in France, I saw Martha Wallace. She is working in a hat shop and taking singing lessons. She said that Helge Dahlin is teaching English in Norway. I also saw Jack Payne. He is in the Air Force. Says he's going to make it his career."

"Say, Lonna, I saw in the Dalkena Daily News that Allen Davaz is home visiting. I read that he is a foreign news correspondent. Of course, you knew that Jack Bertz is editor of the Dalkena Daily News. Last week he featured a story on David Strayer. He is our Representative at Olympia."

"I saw Laura Pearce in Pullman, Anna. She is a house mother at Willmer Hall. She said her girls are the 'best in the west!' She also said she heard from Mrs. Herb Veit, the former Lorene Patterson; Lorene and her husband are living in Colorado on a horse ranch."

"Lonna, did you know that Doris Brown and Lois Mull have a nursery school here and at Metaline? Lowell Self, our local carpenter, has a contract to build them one in Cusick and Ione."

"Well, Torchy Hokanson surely did well. She has her own television show and Maynard Funden announces it. She always was good at dancing."

"Lonna, did you hear about Tom Bolin and Alex Boyle? They are scientists at the Hydrogen plant in Richland."

"Well, they always were good in physics and Chemistry. Oh, by the way, I saw Mrs. Dick Bishop in Spokane. She is the former Gladys Richardson, you know. She and her husband operate the Evergreen Theaters in Spokane."

"Yes, I know, Lonna. I notice that—oh, my! I have been so busy talking over old times that I didn't notice that someone has been trying to get me. I'd love to go on and on but my switchboard calls me."

"Well thanks, Anna, for talking over old times. It really has been fun. I hope that all of the graduates of '52' have the best of luck in the future. Good-bye."

Basketball

N.H.S. had a good season in basketball under the direction of Coach Caviness. The team won 14 games and lost only 5 during the regualr season. Newport won the last 10 out of 11 games.

Newport finished third in the county league, with a record of 3 wins and 3 losses in conference play. The Grizzlies were defeated 3 times in the county tournament at Metaline Falls and finished in fourth place.

Seniors Paul Foster and Jim Henley will be lost to the squad next year, but the remaining lettermen promise a very good season for 1952.

Student Council

The Student Council is composed of the Student Body officers and representatives from all classes and clubs in the school. The Student Body officers are the heads of the Council, which is under the guidance of the principal.

All Student Body bills must be approved by the Council before payment is authorized. It also makes new laws and passes on most measures before they are presented to the student body.

Paper Staff

The Grizzly Growls of Newport High School, formerly known as the Hi-Times, had a staff which numbered eighteen this year, including Jack Bertz and Ann Sowder as co-editors, and Mike O'Brien as sports editor.

The staff decided to have the paper published every three weeks instead of every two, and to try to have a larger variety of articles.

Mrs. Hattie Boyle was the group's advisor.

SENIOR PLAY CAST

Drama

The first play of the year was a three-act comedy, "Where the Deer Antelope Play," presented by the Thespians, with an all-high cast. Mr. Roy Pierce directed this play which was presented on November 17.

This comedy concerned a college girl's efforts to convince her parents that their house should be re-decorated and showed the conflict between progressive youth and traditional old age. This play was very well received by a large audience and netted the Thespians a nice profit.

The senior class play, with an all-high cast of twenty students, was presented on March 14.

"Take Care of My Little Girl" told the story of a girl who joined a college sorority. This play was a type of mild satire on college sorority life.

The set used for this play was one of the best ever seen on Newport's stage and the play was well received.

A play "The Silver Cord," was presented on May 16th with a cast of five Thespians. Those in the cast were Ann Sowder, Sharon Bacon, Betty Olson, Tom Bolin, and Jack Burgeson. The assistant director was Barbara Monear.

The play is a three-act comedy-drama about two sons torn between love for their mother and that for their wife and fiance.

The Newport High School Thespian Troupe 572 was originated in the spring of 1947 under the sponsorship of Miss Lucille Lake. It has since been under the guidance of Miss Ellsworth and Mr. Roy Pierce.

It is a non-secret and non-social organization whose purpose is to further the dramatic activity in the high school. It usually produces one of the year's plays. Membership is given for participation and production in plays.

The Newport High School Thespian Troupe has been very active since it was started, and this year has sponsored two plays.
