Class History

It was the big day—at last! We were starting school. Ann Allan, Gary Akers, Leona Bergen, Phyllis Brittain, Helen Eng, Lily Ann Erickson, Eugene Bailey, Phyllis Funden, Denny Lithgow, Betty Johnson, Mike O'Brien, Joanne Schell, Bud Slusser, Ann Sowder, and Lewis Veit were fifteen students among those who helped furnish the smiles, tears and noise that memorable day in 1941.

After many happy days of crayons, books, rhythm bands, and school parties, we reached the eighth grade. By this time we had been joined by Thelbert Hand, Jim Geary, Bob Straolsund, Delores Chenevert, Cleo Dodge, Barbara Menear, Lauritz Pillers, Phillip Self, Jim Hodges, and Connie Bennett.

With the usual initiation, we were off to a big start in high school. In our freshman year we were joined by Donna Richards, Glenn Pearce, Jerry Roberts, Cliff Henke, Frank Rusho, Ann Hamacher, Shirley Bower, Jerry Coy, Dale Geaudreau, Arvin Ockert, Pauline Brown, Gloria Sprague and Bill Worley. Mr. Fahland and Mr. Genevro were our advisers.

As sophomores, we had an April Fool's Dance, with table games for those who didn't dance. This was a novelty and very successful. Sharon Bacon, Geraldine Winkel, Arlene Jacobsen, and Gene Taylor joined us. Our advisers were Mrs. Boyle and Mr. Lindman.

Two big successes of our junior year were the Revue, with Jack Burgeson and Mike O'Brien as MCs, and the Prom, "Red Sails in the Sunset." Mike O'Brien and Sharon Bacon were King and Queen of the Prom with Barbara Menear and Nina Oscarson as Princesses. Mr. Low and Mr. Seymour helped us as advisers, and we were joined by Neil Henderson and Darrel Randolph.

Our senior year was very full of activities. One of the high lights of our last year was our Senior Ball, held on December 6. The theme was "Stairway to the Stars," with Barbara Menear as Queen and Cleo Dodge, king. This final year Kirk McNair joined us, and Mr. Fahland and Mr. Low helped us with our plans for our "sneak" and our graduation ceremonies.

Senior Class Will

The Senior Class of 1953, upon leaving this institution, bequeath their advisers, Mr. Fahland and Mr. Low, to the incoming Freshmen class. Individual bequests to the members of the student body are as follows:

To Don May, Sharon Bacon leaves her soda-jerking ability. Don't eat all the profits, Don.

Gene Bailey and Thelbert Hand will to Lois Sanburn and Ruth Carlton, their "Green hand" degree in agriculture.

Pauline Brown leaves to Keith Meacham, her good grades; and to Mary Ann France, Leona Bergan wills her calmness and quiet ways.

Shirley Bower wills to Don Graham her ability to speak in public.

Delores Chenevert leaves her singing ability to Joe Hooper so he can serenade the women, while Ann Hamacher leaves to Cynthia Baker her ability to acquire an engagement ring.

Cleo Dodge wills his winning ways to the "man-in-the-moon" because he just couldn't leave them to anyone else.

To Frank Monk, Helen Eng leaves her car and driving ability. Use them wisely, Frank.

Neil Henderson and Gary Akers will their ability to blow up the Chem lab to Jerry Zierdt and Stuart Bacon. Hope you get a big bang out of it, boys.

Jerry Roberts leaves to Almo Ostrander his ability to sit in class without absorbing anything.

Arlene Jacobsen wills her Spanish grades to anyone who is foolish enough to take the subject, while Mike O'Brien leaves to Pinky Ownbey his ability to write up the sport stories for the paper and annual.

Bob Straalsund and Darrell Randolph leave their chess sets to Vernon Mallow and Dave Melin.

Connie Bennett leaves her majorette job to Mr. Moore so he will be sure to have it the way he wants it.

To Stan Lobdell and Richard Jackson, Archie Ockert and Bud Slusser leave their ability to acquire arm casts, and hope that they will keep them well covered with the names of their many female admirers.

Betty Lou Johnson leaves her habit of being late to play practice to Pat O'Brien, for the shock would be too great for Mr. Pierce if no one were ever late.

Ann Sowder takes everything she has with her because she wants all she has.

Jim Hodges wills his English grades to Roger Zickler.

Phyllis Brittain wills her pep to John Krogh.

Lily Ann Erickson leaves her position as piano player to anyone who thinks she can do better.

Lewis Veit leaves his horse and riding ability to Naomi Clumpner.

Geraldine Winkel gladly wills her shorthand book to anyone brave enough to take the course.

Frank Rusho leaves his good grades to Bob Kanikeberg and hopes he does well with them.

Dale Geaudreau leaves his position as the only boy in Thespians to Lewis Cain, and hopes he has a good time.

Gloria Sprague leaves her even temper to Betty Holst.

Gerald Coy leaves his shop grades to Albert Barnett.

Denny Lithgow and Gene Taylor will their cars to Bertha Sinner and Luella Bower because girls need cars these days, too.

Kirk McNair leaves his ability to flirt with the girls to Dave Melin.

Lauritz Pillars wills his active position in F.F.A. to Alvin Coy.

Barbara Menear wills her Chemistry grades to anyone who wants them.

Donna Richards leaves her height to Joyce Henderson.

Ann Allan wills her pleasing smile to Joyce Krehbiel.

Joanne Schell leaves her job as Annual Editor to the Newport High Student Body so that they can have just the kind of annual they want.

Phyllis Funden leaves her position in Home Ec. 3 to Gladys Bell.

Jim Geary wills his ability to be late to class to Dotty Bensen.

Cliff Henke wills his curly hair to Don Ellersick.

Phil Self leaves his spot in the metal shop to Jimmy Funk.

Bill Worley wills his ability to throw snowballs straight to his brother Gene Worley, and he hopes Gene has as much fun as he did.

Glenn Pearce leaves his athletic award to Lee Fish.

Band

In new uniforms, the band played and marched for most of the home football and basketball games this year, including the district games at Eastern Washington College of Education.

On December 19 the group played for the annual Christmas program presented by the Newport schools. Their spring concert was presented on April 17. The band played alone and with the massed bands of the county at the County Musical Festival held on May 1. The annual band carnival was held on April 25.

The band was invited to play and march in the Lilac Parade at Spokane on May 16. The majorettes and the newly formed Drill Team were also a part of the parade.

The group will wind up the year by providing the music for the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises in May.

A small "Dance Band" from the larger group was featured at the Junior Revue, as was a trumpet trio composed of Lewis Cain, Lewis Veit, and Stuart Bacon. A second trumpet trio, composed of Aldene Jones, Don Ellersick, and Darrel Maertins, played at the spring concert.

Mixed Chorus and Triple Trio

The mixed chorus and triple trio took part in the Christmas program on December 19, and in the spring concert which was presented on April 17.

The chorus group took part in the County Music Festival, singing as a group and with the massed choruses from the other schools. The group provided much of the music for the Baccalaureate service which was held on May 17. Individual members of the chorus took part in the Junior Revue on April 10.

It is hoped next year to organize the ensemble, both vocal and instrumental, at the beginning of the year and to keep them organized so that they will always have some numbers ready to perform.

NEWPORT

"CHONITA"

After much uncertainty and hard work on the part of the directors and the students, a three-act operetta was presented on December 5.

Taking the leading roles were Sharon Bacon as Chonita, and Bruce McLaren as Stephan, her gypsy lover. This romantic comedy concerns a gypsy girl who must choose between remaining with her tribe and her gypsy sweetheart or becoming a member of her aunt and uncle's society.

On the production staff were Joanne Schell, assistant director; Ann Sowder, production manager; Lily Ann Erickson and Joyce Janson, pianists. Sets were made by Bud Slusser, Arvin Ockert, Joe Geary and Phil Self. Faculty advisers were: Mr. Pierce, dramatic coach; Mr. Moore, music coach, and Mr. Low, directing the building of sets.

"JENNY KISSED ME"

The senior class play, "Jenny Kissed Me," presented on March 27 with an all-high cast, concerned the efforts of a priest, played by Mike O'Brien, to help young Jenny [Barbara Menear] to become "hep." Edward Allan was the friend of the priest and the first to realize what Jenny was really like. Chuck Purcell was the souve young man and Ann Sowder was the housekeeper for the priest. Others in the cast were Joanne Schell, Joan Nelson, Helen Bridges, Luella Lear, Lily Ann Erickson, Joyce Krehbiel, Norman Shay, Sandy Anderson, and Ann Strayer. Helen Eng was student director; Dale Geaudreau, stage manager, and Sharon Bacon, business manager.

JUNIOR REVUE

The Junior Revue, presented on April 10, was a floor show at the "Club 54" with all acts carrying out the night club theme. Stan Lobdell was Master of Ceremonies.

THESPIANS

The National Thespian Society Troupe 572 of Newport, sponsored by Mr. Pierce, had twelve members this year. Thespians is a non-secret, non-social organization whose purpose is to further dramatic activities in high schools. Membership is given for participation and production in plays. Officers this year were: President, Ann Sowder; Vice President, Sandy Anderson; Secretary-Treasurer, Sharon Bacon; Representative, Joanne Schell, and Reporter, Betty Johnson.

"OUR TOWN"

Something new was tried this spring—"Our Town," a play with no properties and a bare stage, depicting the daily life in an ordinary American town between 1901-1913. The adult roles were taken by both teachers and townspeople; the younger roles were handled by students.

THESPIANS

First row, left to right: Alice Kubota, Ann Sowder, Joanne Schell, Sharon Bacon, Betty Johnson.

Second row: Bertha Sinner, Donna Conner, Rosalee Ewing, Connie Bennett, Lily Ann Erickson, Sandy Anderson, Joyce Jansen, Ruth Carlton, Ann Strayer.

BAPT POINT

Basketball

The Grizzlies had an excellent basketball season this year, winning 17 of 27 games they played. The team swept through the County league, losing only one game, to win the championship. Then the boys took the county tournament, held at Newport, to gain the Ione berth to the District Tournament from this county. Newport made a good showing at the N. E. D., winning the opener against Lind 52-43. The following night the Grizzlies were defeated by the Mead Panthers; but the team came back to cop another win, this time defeating Marcus 51-44. This pitted Newport against the Reardan Indians in the finals and Reardan came out on top by the close score of 45-42. Newport finished fourth in a district containing over 45 teams.

Neil Henderson, Glenn Pearce, and Tom Jeter all won positions on the County All-Star Team. Neil and Tom also won places on the All-N. E. D. team at Cheney. Henderson and Pearce were top scorers for the season.

This year Coach Caviness will lose 6 seniors: Glenn Pearce, Mike O'Brien, Cleo Dodge, Neil Henderson, Joe Geary, and Gary Akers. Their absence will be felt, but Caviness has the nucleus of another good team coming up for next season.

Following the heart-breaking loss to Reardan, the townspeople decided that the team earned a trip to Tacoma and the State Tournament, so they collected enough money to send the team over. For the Seniors it was a fitting climax to their basketball careers, and for the returning lettermen it left a goal to aim for next year.

This year the "B" squad won 15 games and lost only 4. Two of the losses were at the hands of "A" school, Rogers.

FOOTBALL

Football

This year Newport lost 7 games and won 2, to finish in 7th place in the newly formed Tri-County League. Captain Glenn Pearce was the outstanding player while Don Hiebert provided the scoring punch with his 36 points.

The William Tone Inspirational Award was revived this year after a lapse of several years. Glenn Pearce and Bud Slusser won the honor for 1952.
