Dedication

In appreciation of the efforts and opportunities extended by our principal to the student body, the annual staff dedicates the 1960 Bruin to Mr. Easton.

Mr. Easton, born in Crescent, Louisiana, came to Newport in 1949. Besides having been our principal for eleven years, he has been very active in community functions.

During World War II Mr. Easton served as a captain in the South Pacific. Enjoying traveling, he has toured through most of the United States.

May the annual staff be the first to congratulate you, Mr. Easton, and may you find pleasure in this year book.

Superintendent's Message

Congratulations to the Annual Staff of 1960 for the excellent yearbook you have just completed. This completion of a task is significant of life's experiences. Each individual may set a goal to achieve while residing on earth. The mere setting of the goal is just the beginning and to accomplish our aims require those prerequisite qualities that determine life's successes. Determination, concentration, proper attitudes, and appreciation of true values are some of the qualities needed. The greatest of all assets though, is to know right from wrong, to be humble and compassionate. A right judgment may make your individual success as a wrong one may destroy all you have striven for. The ability to make these judgments reflect all facets of experiences you have gone through during your formative years.

It stands to reason that the more PROPER encounters you have during school years that require judgments that are RIGHT, the better chance you will have to succeed.

Don't throw away valuable time: make the most of every living day.

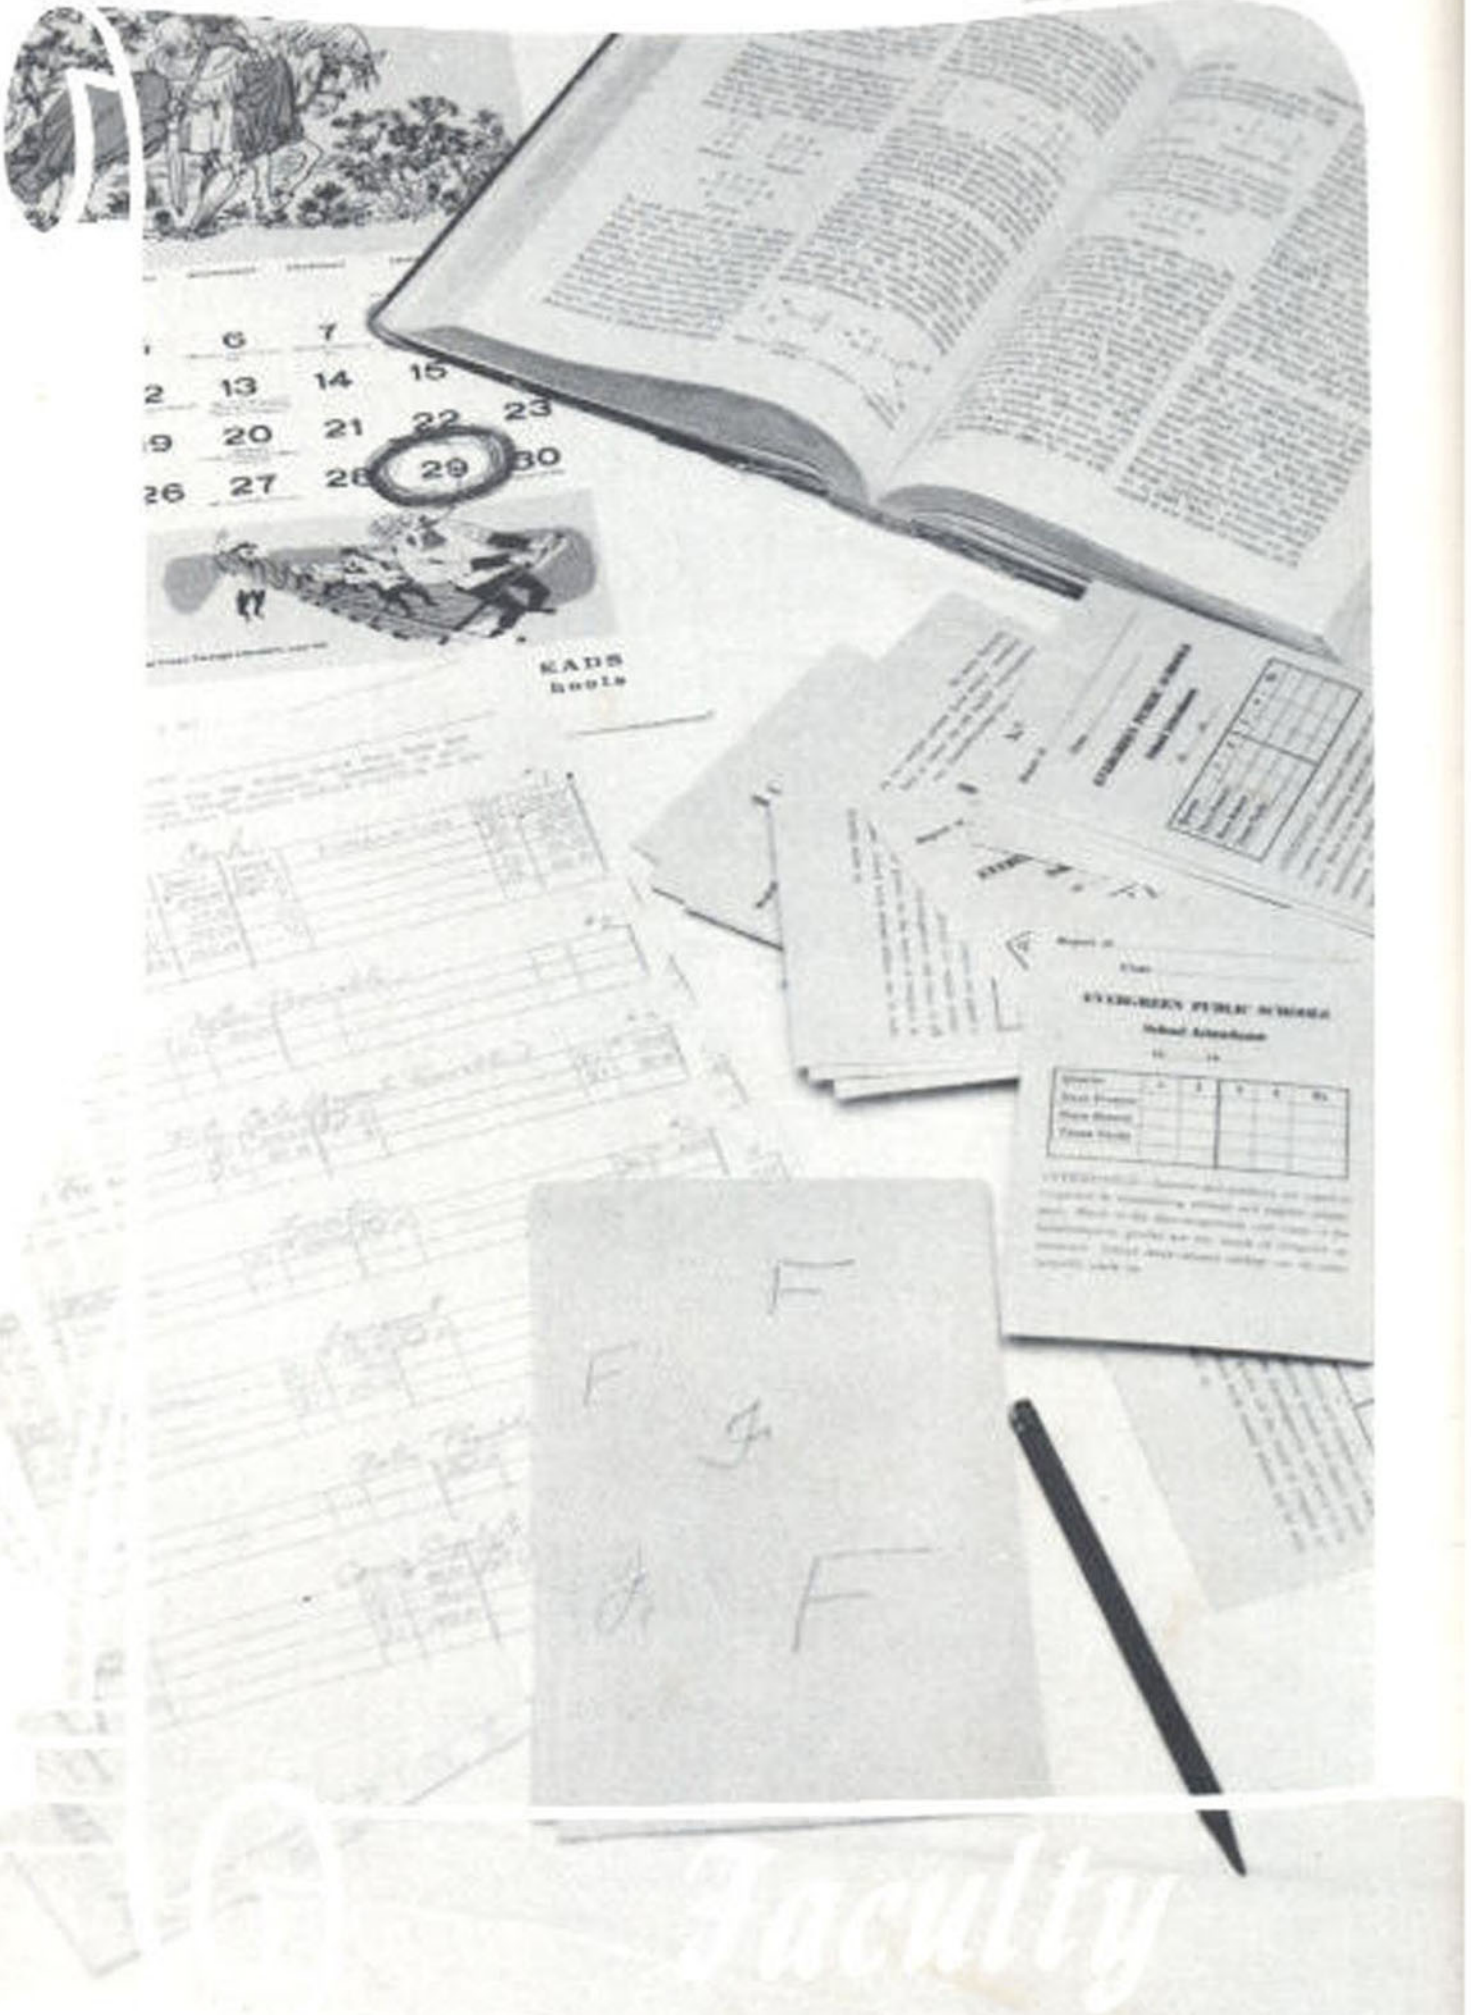

George H. Anderson

Principal

Best wishes to the graduating class. May success, happiness and prosperity lie just around the corner for each of you. Money doesn't always mean happiness and quite often I am reminded of the famous saying: It's good to have money and clothing that money can buy, but it's good, too, to check up once in a while and make sure we haven't lost the things that money can't buy.

Lynn Easton

Senior History

September '48: This was our first day at school. At the ring of the bell 24 excited and scared first graders met Mrs. Johnson and Miss Barnes, our firs teachers. If you came into our class that year, you would find Beatrice Bank Charlene Betz, Darrel Blake, Cathy Bloodgood, Stuart Chaney, Mont Davaz, John Hall, Jim Hiebert, Ruth Ann Hiebert, Marjorie Huling, Judy Khalar, Ga King, Don Lawrence, Mike Leichner, Mike Lithgow, Clarence Miltner, Steve Norstadt, Ruth Ockert, Larry Painter, Marguerite Proctor, Jerry Roseburro Jim Ruddach, Susan Wohld, and Joyce Yeaw learning the latest adventures of "Dick and Jane".

'49-'50: As our second year was completed, no new faces appeared among except for our teachers, Miss Hurd and Miss Johnson. Writing and phonics w added to our curriculum.

'50-'51: We found Karen Kanikeberg, Charles Kienholz, Carol McNees, an Christy Pennell wandering around while we were on a nature hike and brought them back to school with us. We learned the multiplication tables and how to divide under the guidance of Mr. Miller and Mrs. Moore.

'51-'52: Jean Horsemann joined us as Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Wallace gave us our first lessons in American History.

'52-'53: We went to the park for our picnic and a new boy, named Larry Snyder, got mixed into our crowd and was brought back to school. Miss Halstead and Mr. Postma said he could stay if we would study our spelling.

'53-'54: While visiting, John King found that he preferred our teachers, Mrs. May, Miss Johnson, and Mrs. Bloodgood to his; so he stayed.

'54-'55: When Mrs. Graham and Mr. Gray took us to Indian Creek for our picnic, we found Ed Hendrickson, who had caught a lot of fish. While the boys learned some fishing pointers, a few of the girls took a dip in the creek.

May '56: On this day we graduated from grade school. Mr. Weir and Mrs. Graham had prepared us for high school and in the process, art and lettering were added.

Sept. '56: We were fully initiated by the Sophomore class as "Frosh" into high school. We wore everything from bathing suits to "long-handled" underwear and by the end of the day were covered with shoepolish, lipstick and egg. Dan Bell, Roy Brown, Eva Capellen, Thomas Corning, Eugene Foster, Floyd Heiser, Bernadine Hopfinger, Arlene Paisley, Florence Schilling, Bob Sedlacek, Bud Snethen, and John Walther were participants in the "fashion show" also.

'57-'58: Since were initiating the Freshmen and this was the last initiation to be held, Jerry Thomas joined us.

'58-'59: Judy Schermerhorn was left behind after the "Hillbilly" Junior Revue; so she stayed.

'59-'60: The rumor went around that the Seniors in N.H.S. could go anywhere in the U.S. on their "sneak". Kenneth Auer, Pat Bostron, and Jim Gleason, hoping that we would go to Alaska or Hawaii, joined us.

May 20, 1960: This was the day we graduated from N.H.S. From here we will go our separate ways, but we can always remember fun and friends during the "best time of our lives" at N.H.S.

SCANDEL! SCANDEL!!

Happy??

Romantic?

How cute!

Your note?

Second Child Hood

What'd ya do??

Duhhhh!!!

Who me??

It's a panic!!

What's wrong?

Frosh Day's!!

Who is it, Larry?

Look ma, no cavities!

Havin' fun?

Play it cool!

We're poor!

-Toothless

Blackeyes

Say cheese!

Good old days

I'm an Arabian!

Caught in the act.

Was it funny?

Three musketeers

Let's have it!

Hip Hip Hoora

Daisy Mae!

Pal's forever

SLEEPY?

Always eating!

Guess Who?

TROUBLES?

Make it shine.

Wider please!

What a ride!

Cheering?

Bashful boy

Hula Champ

Who is he?

Oh! that picnic!
