

Bloomsbury Book Drive

September 12-16, 2022

In partnership with Bloomsbury on Sunday Book Club, International Book Project is collecting 5,000 children's books
for eastern Kentucky Flood Victims
September 12-16 from 10am to 4pm

Books we Accept

- Children's library books (picture books and chapter books)
- English /Grammar, Science, Math texts, (K-University)
- Fiction and Non-fiction books for Adults
- Dictionaries and Thesauruses
- Books in Spanish (all ages, fiction and non-fiction only)

Books we cannot Accept

- Books with broken bindings, yellowed, written on or torn pages,
- Outdated (before 2000) or incomplete encyclopedia sets.
- Political/Religious/Evangelical Books
- Magazines, Workbooks/Diaries
- Self-help Books, Cookbooks, Gardening Books

DONATE more than books?

- Monetary donations are being accepted to cover costs such as packing materials and shipping - $1,000 goal.
- Visit - intlbookproject.org to make an online donation
- Mail - checks to 1440 Delaware Avenue, Lexington, KY 40505

URGENT Needs:

Picture and Story Books
Example:
Dr. Seuss
Fly Guy
Curious George

Leveled Readers
Example:
Leveled Series
Grades K-6th

4th-5th Grade
Chapter Books
Example:
Magic Treehouse
to Pony Pals

6th-8th Readers
Example:
Junie B. Jones to Harry Potter

International Book Project believes books change lives.
Our mission is to develop lasting partnerships with underserved communities to provide books, promote literacy, and advance economic opportunity throughout Kentucky, across the country, and around the globe.

1440 Delaware Ave.
Lexington, KY 40505

www.intlbookproject.org
(859) - 254 - 6771

@intlbookproject

