

St. Charles High School

Home of the Spartans

Volunteer opportunities are a very important part of your resume', college application, and job application. Make sure you take advantage of getting involved and volunteering!!! Colleges and businesses are looking for well-rounded individuals who are making a difference!!!

Charles County Arts Alliance: Opportunities for volunteers in efforts to promote the arts in Charles County by assisting in periodic events and activities. They welcome your help at any time throughout the year. For more information, visit: www.charlescountyarts.org/volunteer/help-wanted-now.

Charles County Children's Aid Society: This is a volunteer opportunity for students to give back to the community. Volunteers are needed on a daily basis or for various activities. For more information, visit: www.childrens-aid-society.org or contact the volunteer coordinator at 301-645-1561.

Charles County Emergency Services: From fire, rescue (including dive), to EMT, Charles County has numerous volunteer opportunities. For more information on the different stations, please visit: www.ccvfireems.org/content/companies

Charles County NAACP Youth Council: Volunteers are needed to promote the NAACP mission. The primary focus issues for the Division are Voting Rights and Political Representation, Economic Sustainability, Education, Health, and Juvenile Justice. For more information, visit: <https://charlescountynaacp.org/youth-council>.

Charles County Sheriff's Office TEEN COURT: TEEN COURT is seeking youth volunteers to serve as jurors and prosecution and defense attorneys. Volunteers earn community service hours, gain experience in the legal system, try real court cases, and help their community. To find out more about this program including a schedule of Teen Court dates, please visit: www.ccsu.us/community/youth-outreach and click on TEEN COURT or contact Ms. Sarah Vaughan, Teen Court Coordinator, at 301-609-3916.

Charles County*Rotary Interact Club: The Rotary Club is a service organization whose stated purpose is to bring together business and professional leaders in order to provide humanitarian service and to advance goodwill and peace around the world. It is a non-political and non-religious organization open to all. For more information, visit: www.neighborhoodcreativeartscenter.org/rotary-interact or email msgeorgia@neighborhoodcreativeartscenter.org

Humane Society of Charles County, Inc.: The Junior Volunteer Program is set up for those who are under 18. Volunteers are needed for many kinds of work and activities. For more information, visit: www.humanesocietycc.org. For questions, please call 301-645-8181.

LifeStyles of Maryland Foundation, Inc.: Volunteers are needed to help provide services to those who are economically disadvantaged. For more information, call 301-609-9900 or visit: <https://lifestylesofmd.org/volunteer>.

Melwood: Volunteers are needed to assist in many areas that help individuals of differing abilities. If you are interested in volunteering with Melwood, visit: <https://melwood.org/volunteer-opportunities> or call 301-599-2724.

Our Place Soup Kitchen: Volunteers are needed to sponsor dinners, set up, clean up, and serve the meals. To find out more information about volunteering go to: www.OurPlaceWaldorf.com , call 240-210-9813, or email support@ourplacewaldorf.com.

Promise Landing Farm: Nanjemoy farm has openings for volunteers to help with the horses and lessons including side walkers and horse leaders. For more information, visit: www.PromiseLandingFarm.org.

Sagepoint Senior Living Services: Volunteers are needed to assist in several areas to help senior citizens. For more information and to download an application go to: <https://www.sagepointcare.org/about-us/volunteering/> or you may contact a Volunteer Services Representative at 301-934-1900.

Southern Maryland Food Bank: Volunteer opportunities for ages 16+ or 12-15 with an adult. Volunteers work in the Food Pantry stocking, bagging, and distributing food. For more information, visit: <https://southernmarylandfoodbank.com/volunteering> or contact them at 301-274-0695.

Spring Dell Center, Inc.: Volunteers are needed to assist in many areas that help people with disabilities. For more information, visit: <https://springdellcenter.org/index.php/online-forms/volunteer-application>, call 301-934-4561 or 301-870-3758

Steam Onward: Volunteers help the community with opportunities in agriculture, natural resources, and the environment. For more information, visit: <https://steamonward.org/volunteer-activities>.

Tri-County Youth Services Bureau, Inc.: The TCYSB is looking for volunteers to help a young person realize his or her fullest potential. For more information call 301-645-1837, email info@tcysb.org or visit <http://tcysb.org>.

United Way of Southern Maryland: Volunteers are needed for different events where the mission is to impact lives in Calvert, Charles, and St. Mary's Counties by mobilizing the caring power of our community to advance the common good. For more information and an application, visit: www.unitedwaysouthernmaryland.org/volunteer.

University of Maryland Charles Regional Medical Center - Nursing and Healthcare Career Exploration Opportunity: Volunteer Program Teens between the ages of 14 and 17 are exposed to the healthcare environment while deciding if healthcare is the career for them. The program also offers teens an opportunity to serve their community and its residents. Volunteers learn about the hospital setting while assisting staff members and patients. Volunteers spend between 4 and 30 hours each week at the University of Maryland Charles Regional Medical Center over the summer. For more information, visit: <https://www.umms.org/charles/about/volunteer-opportunities>. Volunteer Applications are usually accepted beginning April 1st of each year. Please pay attention to the deadline for submitting your application.

VOLUNTEER AT SCHOOL!!!

There are numerous clubs available for you to join at St. Charles High School. Many of the clubs participate in several service projects throughout the year that benefit members of our community.

Make sure you join at least one of these clubs so you can VOLUNTEER and BE THE DIFFERENCE!!!

Make A Difference

