

Relations With Parks and Recreation Agencies

The school district's role in the community's recreational program consists of its contribution of the use of school equipment and of buildings for various activities sponsored by the community. The school district also contributes financially to local recreation programs.

Adopted: September 28, 1987

Reviewed: April 23, 2019

CROSS REF.: KF, Community Use of School Facilities