

~ABCs of WEB EVALUATION~

Accuracy	Audience	Authority	Bias/Perspective	Content	Currency
Is it error free ?	Is this site appropriate for my needs?	Author's/Authors' name or names	Are there sponsors for the site?	Does it contain in-depth/detailed info.?	Is the info. current and up-to-date
Is it credible ?	Is it too simple or elementary?	Author's/Authors' title or titles	Are there any advertisements ?	Is it scholarly or academic?	Are revision dates noted?
Is it well maintained?	Is it too technical?	Are they experts in their field?	What does the author have to gain from publishing the web page?	Does it contain light/simple facts?	Are there any broken links?
How do you know?	Is it meant for the general public?	Who sponsors this page?	Can the author's statements be proven or disproven ?	Are there grammar/spelling errors?
		What is the url extension? .com, .gov, .org, .net, .edu	Is the writing style trying to influence your opinion?	Is it well organized?
			Remember even well-written web pages may have an agenda!	Is the info. available in another resource?
				Is there a bibliography available?	