Dr. Douglass and Platform
Guests at First of Annual Harl R. Douglass Days

In honor of the recent re-naming of our school, the Highlights '60 staff would like to dedicate this page to Dr. Harl R. Douglass.

Last year, a committee of ninth graders and teachers, working with the school board, selected Douglass Junior High School from a group of thirty names originally suggested. Dr. Douglass was undoubtedly selected because of his nearly fifty years spent as an educator during which time he has become nationally known. In addition to this, he has devoted the last eighteen years to Colorado youth as director of Education at CU.

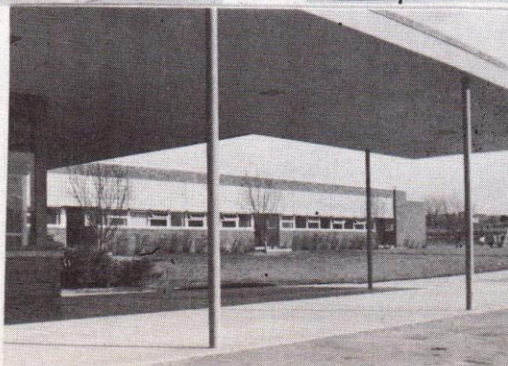

The honor this noted resident of the Fairview District lends to us with his name is highly appreciated by all of the students and staff at Douglass Junior High School.

Many hands have helped in the putting together of this year's annual...so many, in fact that it would be impossible to give all the credit that is due. Most members of the "J" Club have had a hand in it somewhere and even they cannot all be mentioned.

It would seem that some of the work here in should be pointed out, however. The idea represented by our "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and which carries our theme throughout the book was put together by Keith Hanson, who drew the gestures and poses in which you will find our hero. The old English printing has been done by Kathie Ingalls. Bill Hutson, Dave Meyer, Keith Hanson and Bill Queen have done most of the photography. The layout on the various pages has been planned and executed by Beth Harnois, Nancy Conda, Marsha Mangus, and Channa Allan under the guidance of Mary Kay Whetstine. Chuck Pacheco, Steve Amiot, Mike Adams, Jerry Travers, Dave Meyer and many other good talkers did the advance sales work and the distribution of the books. Betty Kirk advertised the sales campaign in an imaginative fashion. All of you were cooperative to the nth degree and the staff thanks you...and wishes you the joy of Highlights '60. May it warm you to pleasant memories of 1959-60 for many years to come.

Dedication =2

Highlights '60 is being dedicated to a teacher who has done much in making Douglass Junior High School what it is today. The teacher is, of course, Mrs. BARBARA CARLSON.

Mrs. Carlson graduated from Boulder High School and the University of Colorado. She taught in Erie, Colorado for four years before coming to our school.

She has sponsored and mad a fine success of the National Junior Honor Society and the Drama Club. She is also a ninth grade homeroom sponsor.

This is Mrs. Carlson's fourth and last year at our school. Next year she will be teaching, as head of the English Dept., at Fairview High school down the road apiece. We will all miss her but wish her the best of luck and good fortune in her brand new school and position.
