E. Building/Director Reports:

Saraya Pierce mentioned that during Professional Development, staff was trained on the Standard Response Protocol, with focus on specific needs at each building.

Jenny Erickson informed those present that Halloween was a wonderful event, complete with a costume parade for students that wished to participate. Parent Teacher Conferences went well and the overall feedback was that parents really appreciated the two full days this year. November brings the wonderful Veterans Day assembly, adding that Mrs. Sager and the third graders did a fantastic job this year.

Tony Moser started out by stating that there were 184 people in attendance for Homework Night. He also echoed Jenny’s message about the two full days of Parent Teacher Conferences, stating that it seemed that the two full days gave more meaningfully designated time.

Troy Whittle stated that the GPS (Grizzly Program for Success) focuses on the data that Washington State provides regarding freshman failure rates (failing one or more core classes). NHS now has a strong focus on mental health curriculum, learning targets, and attendance incentives.

Brett Mackey reported that there are 85 students signed up for winter sports, adding that football is still in and they’re going for state!
Vickie Blanchet said that the GDC has been very busy; Love and Logic classes are on Tuesday nights, and Wednesday nights they have cooking classes.

Chris Altmaier reported that the IT Department is looking at the stability of our servers. They are also offering more Google class trainings and Canvas has recently rolled out a teacher app.

Sheila Mryvang offered that Food Service is going well; the department is looking at different options for taking payments. They're looking at improving lunch line flow as well.

Scott Armstrong said that the maintenance department is really looking forward to using the new plow truck this winter and also mentioned that it will be able to accommodate a much heavier snow load. He was also very happy to report that on November 2, the maintenance department finished and closed every single maintenance work order, which is the first time that he is aware of that it's ever happened. He is very proud of the maintenance team.

Beth Anheier said that she has submitted the Newport School District immunization report; she is happy to say that NSD has improved at every level, by tremendous amounts.

10. Policies (m): None at this time

11. Miscellaneous:
Board Recognition: Superintendent Smith presented gifts to Board Directors Mitch Stratton and Paul Wilson for their years of service to the Newport School District, adding that he has really appreciated all of the time and support they've given to the students and staff at Newport School District.

Director Wilson thanked everyone for all of their hard work, adding that it has been his pleasure to serve all these years.

Director Owen said that she is very proud to be a Grizzly. Also, there was an Alumni Assoc. meeting and they're working on the newsletter and Hall of Fame.
