PLEASANT VALLEY SCHOOL DIRECTORS:

Mr. Wunder welcomed Mr. Tomori in his new position. He also wished Mr. Hines well in his retirement.

Mrs. Yozwiak welcomed Mr. Tomori in his new position. She also congratulated Mr. Hines on his retirement and thanked him for his service.

Mr. Peeters congratulated Mr. Hines on his retirement and wished him well.

Mrs. Kresge requested that the principals provide data to the Board on any students who are "missing." Mr. Triolo stated that this issue has been worked on since the beginning of the year comparing students who have not been in brick and mortar compared to cyber school list for which a list is then made and those families contacted. Mrs. Yozwiak also requested an update on the PIMS reporting.

Mrs. Jecker congratulated Mr. Hines on his retirement and shared her children's experience with him expressing that he will be missed.

Mr. Kresge congratulated Mr. Hines and wished him good luck in his retirement.

Mr. Burger wished Mr. Hines good luck in his retirement and reminded him of a shared memory.

Mr. Triolo stated that Mr. Hines was his first mentor as an administrator and that all good traits that he has come from Mr. Hines. Mr. Triolo stated that Mr. Hines is a wonderful man with a wealth of experience and knowledge and is a leader with care and a leader in relationship building and he will be greatly missed.

PLEASANT VALLEY CITIZENS (non-agenda items):

Christine Philhower, Kunkletown, expressed concern that she has not received any communication or materials with regard to the Cyber School among other issues. She is not comfortable sending her child to brick and mortar.

Christine Higgins, Chestnuthill Township, expressed concern about not receiving books and had to purchase her own. She expressed concern that questions have not been answered and asked what plan is in place so that this does not happen again suggesting that the District be proactive.

Mrs. Yozwiak stated that she has responded to all emails sent to her as Board President.

Ania Fiduccia, Chestnuthill Township, suggested that messages sent to parents also be posted on the website.

Tracey Jacobi, Chestnuthill Township, stated that she looks forward to seeing enrollment numbers at the next meeting. She also stated that although there are issues with VLN, she has had none and has been using VLN for the past six years. She suggested not getting rid of VLN at this point. Ms. Jacobi expressed concern about getting no responses to her emails which addressed several of her concerns including budgetary impacts with regard to cyber and cyber charter schools.

Adrienne Fors, Polk Township, questioned how to get items on the agenda and expressed concern about the lack of responses to concerns. She expressed concern about budget issues, mental health issues and the burden on working parents.

Christina Philhower, Kunkletown, expressed concern about not getting ConnectEd calls. She expressed concern about not receiving any communication or materials for Cyber School.

Board member Susan Kresge expressed her frustration and stated that these parents need to be called. Mr. Fitzgerald said that Dr. Lesisko will address these issues at the end of the public comment portion of the meeting.

Ron Reynolds, Chestnuthill Township, expressed concern that several parents have not yet been contacted. He referred to goals of the District and questioned if a consistent plan is in place for the District in the event of a shutdown in one or more buildings. He expressed concern that answers are not being given in a reasonable amount of time.

Bob Serfass, Polk Township, expressed concern that answers are not given to parents and suggested starting a Cyber School Committee and include the information on the agenda. He stated that the technology infrastructure in the District needs improving.

Christine Higgins, Chestnuthill Township, expressed concern that she has sent many emails to the Board, Dr. Lesisko, and state representatives and has not gotten any responses. She spoke of budgetary issues and suggested that a Cyber School Committee be started and that we have our own cyber school taught by our teachers. She stressed the importance of being proactive.

Ron Reynolds, Chestnuthill Township, expressed the importance of all working together to resolve these issues. He addressed many daily issues with VLN as well as technology issues.

Patrick Seiler, Chestnuthill Township, commented that he finds it appalling that responses are not provided to questions being asked. He encouraged all to break protocol and respond.

Dr. Lesisko stated that he, the Board, as well as the teachers and staff members of the Pleasant Valley School District, care about the students whether they are cyber or brick and mortar students. He said that 288 students were supposed to be in Cyber School and 1,019 showed up and we do not have enough books although they are on order and coming in slowly. He said that Mr. Tomori was hired this evening as Technology Coordinator who will also oversee the Pleasant Valley Cyber Academy and he has been working with the administration. He said that a plan is in the works with the teachers association to have our teachers teach Cyber School but it will take time. Dr. Lesisko stated that he placed many ConnectEd calls with regard to Cyber School students. He said that he would like to have a town hall meeting and explained the registration process for Cyber School. Mr. Tomori gave an update on where we are with the PV Cyber Academy and that we are making progress. He addressed concerns about the lack of communication and assured that all will be receiving phone calls, etc. A discussion was held regarding seat licenses through VLN and the conversion to the full bundle supported licenses. Mr. Fitzgerald stated that in addition to calling parents who have not yet been contacted, he encouraged the administration to place a FAQ page on the website so that any questions can be responded to. This, in addition to Dr. Lesisko's suggestion for a town hall meeting should meet everyone's needs. Further discussion was held about communication and Mrs. Jecker asked for these people to be called and then update the Board. Mr. Fitzgerald suggested that a dedicated phone number be established and Dr. Lesisko said that extension 4040 rings at four desks. Further discussion was held about families with seat licenses and the process for conversion and how Cyber School issues are going to affect PIMS. Mr. Burger said that we should post something daily on our website to keep the community informed. Mrs. Yozwiak stated that the Board has heard the community and that action will be taken.

Mrs. Yozwiak made a statement as follows:

I wish to extend our gratitude to all of the support personnel for their dedication to PVSD during the start of this school year. The custodial, maintenance, food service, secretarial, paraprofessional and transportation staffs have gone above and beyond to ensure PV service to all of our students.

Also, thanks are extended to the security and nursing departments and professional staffs of administration, teachers, counselors, psychologists and consultants who continue to spend long hours in planning for the multi-faceted education offered at PV.

Please know that the Board of Education has noticed your commitment and we appreciate all that you do.

Donna Yozwiak, President of the Pleasant Valley School Board

Mrs. Yozwiak stated that the next Buildings & Grounds meeting is scheduled for Monday, October 12, 2020 at 7:00 PM and that the next Board of Education meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 22, 2020 at 7:00 PM.
