Administrative staff in attendance: Lee Lesisko, Superintendent, Rae Lin Howard, Assistant to the Superintendent, Jessica Tomon, Director of Human Resources, Joseph Surrige, Acting Business Manager, Tammy Smale, Assistant Business Manager, Bill Gasper, Director of Operations, Julie Harris, Director of Special Education, Susan Mowrer Benda, Director of Curriculum, Instruction & Assessment, Chuck Tomori, Technology Coordinator. Tom Toth, Athletic Director.

School Solicitor in attendance: Mark Fitzgerald, Esq.

Notification of Executive Session: President Yozwiak announced that an executive session was held on February 11, 2021 immediately prior to the regularly scheduled meeting for purposes of legal issues, negotiations, personnel matters including, but not limited to, performance and/or discipline.

Colonial Intermediate Unit 20 General Operating Budget Presentation: Dr. Christopher Wolfel and Mr. Hans Baltzersen were present as well as Ms. Jackie Bartek. Dr. Wolfel provided a presentation of the 2021-2022 General Operating Budget. He outlined the CIU20 mission, vision, and reviewed the budget breakdown. Dr. Wolfel reviewed the General Operating Budget summary recommending a 2021-2022 General Operating Budget of $3,750,550 with an overall increase of 2.4% and increase to the school district withholding at 0%. Dr. Wolfel reviewed the services and support services provided by CIU20 to the school district. A summary of revenues and expenditures was also included. Dr. Wolfel stated that Pleasant Valley's contribution is $27,100.26 mandated payment and no increase from 2020-2021. The presentation is attached. Dr. Wolfel thanked the Board of Directors, Dr. Lesisko and his administrative team, teachers and staff for working closely with the IU.

President Yozwiak announced that the meeting procedures were attached to the agenda and posted online. She provided the opportunity for Pleasant Valley citizens to comment on agenda items with a three-minute time limit.

Pleasant Valley Citizens:

Leia Leuthardt, Chestnuthill Township, expressed her opinion that students return to in-person learning and expressed frustration about the results of the survey sent to parents and response by the Board.

Ed Iandoli, Saylorsburg, addressed the Boys' Lacrosse head coach position and expressed his disappointment that T.J. Dorn was not hired. He thanked Mr. Dorn for all he has done as a coach and mentor. Mr. Iandoli also expressed his opinion that students should be back in school and that no response was received for communications sent to administration.

Ashley Yelland, Eldred Township, expressed her opinion about the survey sent to parents as well as CDC guidelines concerning social distancing. She provided information on other school districts that have opened and expressed her desire to return students to school.

Erin Beers, Chestnuthill Township, addressed social distancing and offered suggestions relating to looking to the future to open school for next year.

Jessica Santo, Polk Township, expressed her opinion that students return to school five days a week for those who wish to and expressed concern about the emotional struggle for the students and parents.

Adrienne Fors, Polk Township, expressed tax dollars could go toward accommodations to get students back to school. Jeffrey Fors expressed his appreciation to Dr. Lesisko for reaching out to him about budget restrictions and returning students back to school. He urged administration to look at every opportunity to return students to school with 85% of parents wishing to do so.

Mitchell Costa, Chestnuthill Township, referred to the parent survey with an overwhelming number of parents in favor of students returning to school five days a week. He expressed that the hybrid learning is not beneficial and expressed concern about the lack of interaction between teachers and students.

PLEASANT VALLEY SCHOOL DIRECTORS:

Mrs. Jecker stated that survey results are being reviewed and assured the community that the Board is doing everything possible and looking at all options to bring students back to school.

Mrs. Yozwiak stated that the Board has completed walk-throughs at PVE, PVI, and PVHS and that a walk-through at PVMS will be scheduled as soon as possible. She said that all considerations are being looked at according to the Department of Health and the CDC to bring students back to school.

PLEASANT VALLEY CITIZENS (non-agenda items):

Adrienne Fors, Polk Township, expressed concern about delayed openings creating a hardship on working families.

Leia Leuthardt, Chestnuthill Township, expressed concern about delayed openings creating extra hardships for working families. She expressed concern about her children falling behind as well as social and emotional difficulties.

Robert Mullin, Chestnuthill Township, expressed his opinion about opening school and offered options.

Danielle Serfass, Eldred Township, expressed her opinions on opening school and that other schools are open five days a week. She expressed concern about decisions being made and stated students should return to school.

Jeremiah Santo, Polk Township, expressed that COVID numbers are low and do not justify keeping students from returning to school. He expressed concern about the struggles families are having.

Erin Beers Chestnuthill Township, expressed concern that the lack of classroom days for her children is unacceptable.

Suzanne Jones, Chestnuthill Township, expressed that students should get back to school and that her son is struggling academically. She said that the lack of time in the classroom needs to be addressed.

Janine Simons, Chestnuthill Township, expressed that her son is struggling and that students should be in school five days a week and suggested different options.

Jessica Jennings, Chestnuthill Township, expressed concern that sports are allowed and students should be back in school. She suggested different options and how other districts have students in school. She stated that the guidelines are not mandated. She expressed concern about the Seesaw program and the hardship on working families.

Adrienne Fors, Polk Township, questioned if parents' concerns are shared with PDE, Governor and Department of Health and requested a follow up.

Kristin Heller, Polk Township, read a letter written by her 2nd grade daughter and thanked the staff at PVE for making her daughter feel safe in this difficult time.

Kelly Patrice, Polk Township, expressed her opinion that bringing students back to school may or may not happen quickly and urged all to be prepared for next school year. She stated that although she has empathy for working parents, the hybrid model is working well and thanked the teachers. She addressed scheduling issues due to inclement weather.

Jessica Place, Eldred Township, expressed concern about consistency in the curriculum and concern about the hardship on parents as well as dissatisfaction with the Seesaw program. She also expressed concern for the mental health of the students.

Jessica Santo, Polk Township, expressed concern about her son being taught online and her son expressed his feelings about the online learning.

Leia Leuthardt, Chestnuthill Township, expressed concern about students not being in school. She said that her children are suffering and urged the Board to get students back in school.

Ashley Yelland, Chestnuthill Township, expressed her empathy to parents and how this is affecting the entire community. She stated that research shows that the virus is not spreading in school and if students cannot return this year, questioned the plan for five days a week in September.

Suzanne Jones, Chestnuthill Township, expressed her opinion that students need to get back to school and urged the District to do better empathizing with parents' concerns.

Danielle Serfass, Eldred Township, expressed concern about juniors and seniors preparing for college and that students should be in school for those who wish to do it; others can choose other options.

Dr. Lesisko responded to several comments made by community members with regard to the parent survey, responding to emails, school delays due to inclement weather, scheduling issues, and sharing parents' concerns with certain officials. He stated that he, the administration and the Board hear all the concerns clearly and are doing everything to bring students back to school and be in compliance with social distancing guidelines.

Mrs. Yozwiak stated that the next Board of Education meeting is scheduled for February 25, 2021 at 7:00 PM.
