

Problem and Solution

- Pick a story you like.
- On your Response Board, write down one problem and one solution in the story.
- Talk about the solution. Do you think it was a good one?

You need

- > fiction selection
- > Response Board
- > marker

Another Solution?

- Choose one of your favorite fiction books and reread it.
- Write about a problem in the story. How does it make the characters feel?
- Write a few sentences explaining how the character solves the problem.
- With your partner, create a short skit about how the characters solve the problem in the story.

You need

- > fiction selection
- > paper
- > pencil, crayons, and markers