

Using Strong Words

- Think of your favorite movie.
- Make a movie poster. Then add five strong words that describe the movie.
- Use the five strong words to write a paragraph about the movie. Read it to a partner.

You need

- > poster board
- > pencils, paper
- > markers or crayons

Strong Words to Describe

- Think of an author whose books you like to read.
- Write a paragraph telling why you like this author's books. Include interesting details and examples.
- Use strong words that show how you feel. Can you convince a partner to read one of the books?
- Read your paragraph to a partner and find out.

You need

- > paper
- > pencil or pen