

Three Key Details

- Read an informational text from your book.
- Create a Three-Tab Foldable®.
- On the outside tabs write three key details from the text.
- On the inside tab write the text's main idea.

You need

- > paper
- > pencils or pens
- > Three-Tab Foldable®

Write What You Know

- Pick an informational text to read from your book.
- List at least three key details and use them to figure out the main idea. Then write a paragraph about what you learned from the text.
- Trade paragraphs with your partner. Identify the main idea and key details in each other's paragraphs.

You need

- > paper
- > pencils or pens