Tonight, we recognize Carly Sorge for receiving a national Gold Key Award for her computer art entry “The Eccelerant.” Being a national award recipient demonstrates a major achievement for a young artist or writer. Thousands of young people have been nationally recognized since the program began in 1923, including some of America’s most respected talents, such as Truman Capote, Frances Farmer, and Andy Warhol.

All national award recipients are invited to participate in the annual National Celebration Events with an awards ceremony at Carnegie Hall in June. In addition, a series of career workshops and cultural experiences with art industry leaders will be held. National recipients are also encouraged to attend the National Student Art Exhibition at the Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. with student art exhibitions on display from July 1st through August 6th.

FWCS believes students are best served when remediation is offered in a variety of formats and timeframes. The district is requesting $366,369 for remediation programs to be implemented beginning in June 2006 and continuing through May 2007. An additional $183,184 will be provided by the district in matching funds.
