

Showing the Evidence

- Write about a special person. List three relevant facts or details that support your opinion. To begin your paragraph, use this starter: A special person I know is _____.
- Switch paragraphs with a partner. Underline the relevant evidence. Circle any details that are not relevant.

You need

- > paper and pen or pencil

Inspiring Evidence

- Read David's paragraph on the front of this card. How could the paragraph be improved by adding relevant evidence?
- Write about an inspiring person. Include five facts or details to help readers see why this person inspires you.
- Talk about your writing with a partner. Is your evidence relevant? Do you need to add anything?

You need

- > paper and pen or pencil

