

Talking About Point of View

- Choose a story or poem you like.
- Is the author using a first-person point of view or a third-person point of view? How can you tell?
- List details that help you understand the narrator or speaker's point of view.

You need

- > story or poem
- > paper and pen or pencil

Another Way of Seeing

- Choose a story, legend, or poem you know.
- Think about who is telling about the events. List details that help identify the point of view.
- Rewrite one scene or section from a different point of view. Then explain how changing the point of view affects the characters or events.

You need

- > story or poem
- > paper and pen or pencil

