

Tell Me Your Story

- Talk about a story you have read. Ask your partner to talk about a different story in the same genre.
- Write details about the plot of each story. Then write the theme or message of each story.
- Talk about how the stories are alike.

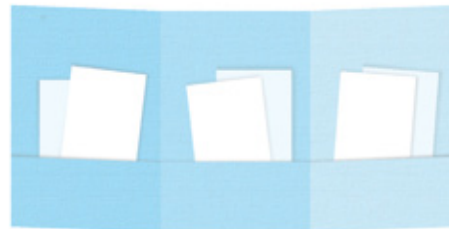

You need

- > two stories
- > paper and pen or pencil

Comparison Sort

- Pick or read two short stories in the same genre. On index cards, write three details from each story.
- On a Three-Pocket Foldable®, label the outer pockets with the titles of the stories. Label the middle pocket “Both Stories.”
- Sort the note cards into the appropriate pockets. By comparing, what do you learn about each story?
