

Time-Order Words

first

next

- Make a list of time-order words.
- On your own, list events that have happened to you this week.
- Make a time line of the events. Using time-order words, write about the events.
- Share your paragraph with a partner. What revisions do you need to make?

You need

- > paper and pen or pencil

Directions in Order

- Choose an activity you like to do or something you like to make.
- Write directions to explain your chosen activity. Include as many time-order words as you need, such as first, next, then, last, before, after, and while.
- Share your directions with a partner. Revise your directions based on your partner's feedback.

You need

- > paper and pen or pencil

