

Four Genres, Four Styles

- Make a Four-Door Foldable®. On the doors of your foldable, write the name of a fiction or nonfiction genre.
- On the inside of each door, write a few sample sentences on the subject of a lost pet. How does the genre affect an author's style and tone?

Robot Style and Tone

- Imagine your family had a robot to do basic household chores. Write a paragraph about your family's daily life from the point of view of the robot. Think about the style and tone.
- Reread your writing. Have you kept a consistent tone throughout?
- Now write the same events from your own point of view. How do the style and tone change?
