Tenaflly High School Music Teacher Selected to Conduct All-State Orchestra

Director of Choirs and Orchestra shines as conductor for NJMEA All-State Orchestra; six talented students named to orchestra and choir

For Immediate Release

Tenaflly, NJ – Tenaflly High School was shining brightly in late November when its Director of Choirs and Orchestras Jim Millar conducted the 2022 NJ All State Orchestra; the Association held two performances, one at the NJMEA (New Jersey Music Educators Association) Convention in Atlantic City on Friday, November 11, and a second one on November 20 at NJPAC in Newark. Mr. Millar was invited by the NJMEA last March to conduct at the annual state concert, which also features the all-state chorus.

The mission of the NJMEA is the advancement of music instruction in New Jersey's educational institutions at all levels that provide in-service and enrichment opportunities for practicing and retired teachers and prospective music educators, as well as sponsoring various festivals and all-state performing groups for K-12 students.

Joining Millar were six talented THS students. Gabriel Gutierrez and Grace Chung were members of the All State Chorus; and Hannah Choi, Sarah Lee, Lunette Shaw and Daniel Cho were in the orchestra.
