Tenaflly Celebrates Students Named to Bergen County Honor Band

Eight Tenaflly High School students to perform in January with Music Educators of Bergen County All-County Honors Band

For Immediate Release

Tenaflly, NJ – Eight Tenaflly High School students have been named to the Bergen County Honor Band. Sponsored by MEBCI (Music Educators of Bergen County, Inc.), the Bergen County Band recognizes the top student band musicians in our county. Students performed a live audition on November 29, consisting of scales and an excerpt from standard band literature.

Bergen County students in grades 9-12 who participate in their high school instrumental music department and are certified as individuals of above average musical ability by their high school instrumental instructor are eligible to audition. Students selected by MEBCI attend three required rehearsals in the week leading up to a final all-county concert on Sunday January 15th, 3:00pm at Bergenfield High School.

This year, eight THS students under the direction and recommendation of THS Band Director Mike Jacobetz were accepted into the Honor Band. For clarinet, Julian Ahn, Andrea Koo, Jun Lee, Emily Kim, Nathan Goldberg, and Daniel Shin. For tenor saxophone, Colin Kim and for trumpet, Pranav Suresh. THS junior clarinet player Julian Ahn and sophomore tenor saxophone play Colin Kim both placed first overall for their respective instrument.
