SOUTH RIVER PUBLIC SCHOOLS HOME INSTRUCTION APPLICATION

REQUEST FOR HOME INSTRUCTION

Parent/Guardian: PLEASE READ CAREFULLY.

Students may be deemed eligible for Home Instruction in those rare instances when long-term confinement to home or hospital is required because of severe illness or injury. The student's absence must be expected to last at least two weeks (10 school days) from the time a completed APPLICATION is received by the school. "Confinement" means that the student is bedridden or unable to participate in activities outside the house.

The approval process includes review by the school nurse, the principal, and the district Consultant for School Health Services. Eligibility will be determined by the Chief School Medical Inspector. A full report by the attending physician must accompany the APPLICATION. A follow-up contact will be made with the physician before approval. A physician's report will be necessary to release the student to return to school. It usually takes at least a week for eligibility to be determined and tutors to be arranged.

Students are expected to work regularly to keep up with their coursework during any absence. Home Instruction is provided to support lengthy absence. It is to assist in meeting the standards for promotion and graduation. However, it is not to be considered equal to the comprehensive in-school educational program the district provides.

As required by State Regulations, any student approved for Home Instruction beyond sixty (60) calendar days must be considered by the Child Study Team to determine eligibility for a special education program.

A student on Home Instruction status is not counted as absent from school. However, Home Instruction is not to be requested just to circumvent the Board's strict attendance policy. Any absence because of an illness which is named on the district's lengthy communicable disease list will be automatically excused upon presentation of a physician's verification. Furthermore, other legitimate absences will be considered for excuse by the school principal, upon parental request.

Primary delivery of Home Instruction is virtual school. Situations where access to a computer is an issue will be addressed as needed. The Building Administrator may assign a teacher as an alternate delivery method.

Home Instruction is rendered for a minimum five hours per week in at least three visits per week. AN ADULT MUST SIGN the tutor's time sheet at the end of each visit to verify the actual time of instruction.
