Enrollment of Students at Eighteen but Less Than Twenty-Two Years of Age

All persons at least 18 but less than 22 years of age who live apart from their parents, support themselves by their own labor, and have not been granted a high school diploma are entitled to attend school free in the school district in which they reside, whether or not their parents reside in the district. To be considered self-supporting for school attendance, the student's monthly income shall be sufficient to pay for shelter, food, medical care, utilities, clothing, credit obligations, and other basic needs. Free room, board or other donations to the student will not be included in determining income.

What is your current living arrangement? Are you paying rent? Do you have a lease?

Are you currently employed? Where? For how long have you been employed? How many hours per week do you work?

How are you supporting yourself?

I verify that the above information is correct to the best of my knowledge.
