Trumbull Public Schools Announce Appointment of Trumbull High School House Principal

Dr. Martin J. Semmel, Superintendent of Schools, proudly announces the appointment of Michael Hoggatt as the House Principal at Trumbull High School.

Before joining Trumbull High School, Mr. Hoggatt served as an esteemed administrator and educator at Milford Public Schools, most recently as the High School Assistant Principal.

Mr. Hoggatt brings an impressive academic background, having earned his Sixth Year Degree in Educational Leadership, Master of Science Degree in Special Education, and Bachelor of Science in Mathematics Education from Southern CT State University.

Known for his integrity and exceptional leadership skills, Mr. Hoggatt maintains a calm disposition and is readily approachable, making him a go-to figure for faculty seeking guidance and direction.

Upon learning of his appointment, Mr. Hoggatt expressed, “I am very excited to start working in the Trumbull Public Schools and cannot wait to meet the Trumbull High School Community.”

With Mr. Hoggatt's addition, the administrative team at Trumbull High School is now fully equipped and poised for a successful 2023-2024 school year!

Dr. Semmel states, “We are excited that our high school administrative team is back to full capacity and in very capable hands. Mr. Hoggatt will play an important role in maintaining the high expectations we set for the entire Trumbull High School community.”

Please join us in warmly welcoming Mr. Hoggatt to the Trumbull High School administrative team!
