Trumbull Public Schools Announce Appointment of Frenchtown Elementary School Assistant Principal

Dr. Martin J. Semmel, Superintendent of Schools, is pleased to announce that Dr. Randi Petersen has been appointed to the position of Frenchtown Elementary School Assistant Principal starting August 14, 2023.

Dr. Petersen has extensive classroom and leadership experience at the elementary level, most recently as Interim Assistant Principal for the Manchester Public School System.

She received her Doctorate in Educational Leadership from the University of Hartford, Sixth Year Degree in Educational Leadership, Master of Science Degree as a Reading/Language Arts Specialist and Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education from Southern CT State University.

Dr. Petersen has been described as someone who demonstrates exceptional skill and deep commitment to improving the quality of education for all students as well as a person who has the experience, thoughtfulness and knowledge to be an impactful educational leader.

Upon learning of her appointment as Assistant Principal, Dr. Petersen conveyed that “I am honored to be the next Assistant Principal of Frenchtown Elementary School. I look forward to working with Ms. Prisco, teachers and families to achieve outstanding outcomes for all of our students”.

Dr. Petersen will be a welcome addition to the Frenchtown Elementary School community.

Congratulations to Dr. Petersen!
