

Conduct & Consequences
Matrix

AMERICAN LEADERSHIP

ACADEMY

Students are expected to abide by all American Leadership Academy (ALA) policies and procedures. The discipline plan reflects the RAISE Leadership Values. Students are expected to be self-governed and to respect the rights and property of others. Students should conduct themselves with courtesy, refinement, and professionalism throughout the school day and any time they represent the school in extra-curricular activities, field trips, or any other school-sanctioned event.

School Administration enforces adherence to school rules, policies, and procedures using a progressive discipline system. School Administration has discretion with respect to its enforcement authority. When considering disciplinary action, School Administration will seek to balance the severity of the conduct and the resulting discipline using the Conduct & Consequences Matrix (“CCM”) pasted below. IDEA compliance shall be followed for all student discipline, suspension and expulsion of students with IEPs to ensure FAPE for the unique needs of a child. Behavior Manifestation procedures will be followed when appropriate to identify and address significant behavior concerns. Behavioral plans will be incorporated as needed for specific student needs.

This CCM includes a list of common and/or serious student conduct violations along with a range of recommended consequences. The violations and range of consequences are meant as guidelines unless the law or circumstances warrant imposing an alternative consequence, as determined in the sole discretion of the School Administration. School Administration maintains the right to modify any consequence based on the nature of the specific incident. Serious violations such as possession of a firearm or dangerous weapon, sexual abuse or any other abuse, or possession of alcohol/illegal drugs will automatically be reported to law enforcement and/or the South Carolina Department of Education.

The school reserves the right to update this CCM at any time in accordance with its policies and procedures. The most recent version of the CCM is available on the school’s website. The CCM aligns with the South Carolina Compilation of School Discipline Laws and Regulations.

The following guidelines are not intended to be all-inclusive. The school reserves the right to interpret, apply, or terminate the following guidelines, in whole or in part, in its sole discretion

The school has made every reasonable effort to ensure the CCM complies with applicable state and federal laws. If the CCM contains a disciplinary consequence that does not comply with applicable law, that law takes precedence over the CCM. If any part of the CCM is, for any reason, held to be unenforceable, such provision is severable and the rest of the CCM remains fully enforceable.

By enrolling, Parent/Legal Guardian and Student agree that they have read and understand this CCM, and that both Parent/Legal Guardian and Student will abide by all school disciplinary policies and procedures.
